NORTH DAKOTA BUYING.

Secretary of Flickertail Fair Says Prospects for Merchants to St. Paul.

St. Paul.—M. C. Bachelor, secretary of the North Dakota State Fair association, which conducts an annual fair in the Flickertail State, was in St. Paul on business in connection with the fair, which is to be held July 23 to 28 at Grand Forks.

"Sufficient spring rains in North Dakota have made every one a booster," said Mr. Bachelor, "and the outlook here is for one of the best business years the state ever has enjoyed. While we suffered a serious setback last year because of drought, it was not so bad as it might have been. Now that the indications are good for a large crop every one is loosening up and a flood of money is finding its way to the West for merchandise."

SELFRIDGE IN LEAD.

Majority of Names Over Thresh on Port Yates Petition.

Bismarck.—The petition presented to the governor by the county seat voters in the county of Blount, to be formed out of that part of the Standing Rock reservation enclosed to Morton county, have been signed by the committee appointed, and, according to the county seat board, a majority of more than 500 over Fort Yates. Arguments will now be heard by the governor on points of law connected both with the names affixed to the petition and to the right for the organization of the county.

The proclamation organizing the county was issued last winter, but the matter of naming the county seat has been held up since that time and there have been delegations here for the past five weeks going over the petition. The governor has allowed until May 18 to submit arguments to the seat.

ELEVATOR AGENT DISAPPEARS.

Alleged Shortage of Elliott at Minn. N. O. Said to Be $4,000.

Grand Forks.—Getting on the wrong side of the grain market, the alleged cause for disappearance of Thomas B. Elliott of Minn. former agent of the Great Northern Elevator Company of Minneapolis and who has been in charge of the elevator at Minn. has not been completed. Indications now are, it is said, that the alleged shortage will be about $4,000. Eight farmers hold storage tickets for about 3,000 bushels of wheat, issued on personal and company storage tickets, which the company will dispute on the ground that Elliott was not its agent. There is also about 1,000 bushels on tickets if used while he was connected with the company.

Foresters to Meet

Mrs. Emma Witzell, a speaker of national prominence in the ranks of the W. C. T. U. will be one of the speakers at the convention.

Willows as Snow Breaks.

Jamestown.—Between Fargo and Jamestown the railway companies are planting thousands of willows to serve as snow breaks and supplement the snow fences in particularly bad cuts on the right of way. The use of willows as snow breaks in North Dakota has proved very successful, and it is planned to have them spaced the old wooden fences entirely, as rapidly as they can be planted. The willows have proven that they need little moisture and grow rapidly and make the best and cheapest protection from the snow.

Minot Normal Site Chosen.

Minot.—After a prolonged fight among the owners of the various sites offered for the new Normal school, the state normal board chose the Gro-Glass site on the South hill, which is just west of the grounds of the Ward County Public Institute association. The site covers sixty acres, and is three blocks wide. The board will meet at Mayville on June 17 to accept the plans of the building, which will cost $100,000, and it is thought that the contract will be let August 1.

Birkford Case is Transferred.

Bismarck.—The case of the State vs. O. L. Birkford, in which the defendant, who was formerly state treasurer, is charged with embezzling $100,000 while in that office, has been transferred from Bismarck and the Sixth district to McLean county in the same district. Judge Crawford of Dickinson has been called as presiding judge. When the case was called for trial here a change of venue was asked and an affidavit of prejudice was filed against Judge Whitewater.

Williams County Fair.

Williston.—Special efforts will be made by the board of directors of the Williams County Agricultural association to bring about the entry of a fine lot of horses for the annual fair and race meet to be held in this city this year. A number of horses are already being worked out on the local track, among them being Governor Barles.

Glen Ullin Meets Defeat.

Glen Ullin suffered its third defeat of the season since the opening of the 63-Mile league, from the hands of the New Salem team Sunday afternoon. The final score was 5 to 1. Nelson pitched for Glen Ullin and Barber pitched for New Salem. The game was an interesting one and both pitchers did splendid work in the box. Glen Ullin will play New Salem next Sunday at New Salem and hopes for revenge.

DeVaul Doings

Another shower visited us so we feel sure of a crop now.

Dave Giese is breaking for his brother Will. He will arrive here some time this month.

Mrs. Al. Suppnick arrived home from Billings Montana. She was called there on account of the illness of her sister. She reported her much better when she left her.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grimm spent a few days in New Salem.

Quite a crowd from "Valley Forge" went to Little Heart on Saturday to have a social gathering and a big dance. The "Valley Forge" band accompanied them.

The fellow who was supposed to buy so many farms has turned out to be sort of a fake. Some of the farmers were much put out about it but no one seems to be out but genial Green Ducaan. You want to collect your board in advance then you won't be loser. Beware of strangers.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Grimm entertained on Sunday a crowd of relatives and friends. Everything was on the table that one could wish for and all surely relished it. You never go shy at the Grimm home for eating and as royal entertainers they can't be beat. One of the best features of the day was the pony race between Carrie Suppnick and Pauline Grimm altho' Carrie lost her "rat" she came out ahead and won the "plunders"? But Carrie couldn't beat in the foot race Rita was there with the footing. We never saw pickles turned down before and as bachelor too, but say talk about apple pie "Sleepy Hollow" can take care of that.

C. L. Chafin spent Sunday at Sineet Hilar with his best girl.

Miss Alma Suppnick went to Flasher to be at the house of Owen Dennis. Mrs. Dennis will enter the hospital at Bismarck where she will submit to a serious operation. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Rev. Jens Pederson had an accident a few days ago which might have resulted in a broken leg. His horse became frightened at an engine and threw him, also breaking his buggy.

Mrs. Christ Johnson of Lehigh visited her brother John Olson and family. She left for her home Sunday via Almont.

A breaking bee was held at the old Torgeson place which is rented by George Ueberstetig. In the evening a dance was enjoyed and ice cream and cake were served.

GOOD OLD North Dakota

The census shows that this state has made almost unprecedented development during the past ten years.

The growth will be even greater during the next decade.

What has brought this about? The rich soil, the healthy climate, the fine character of its citizens have had something to do with this growth. These facts have induced the rapid development of the state, which has led to the following conditions:

Not above all, North Dakota is on the rapid development to the live newspapers, and people in all paper has had a grand part in this work. If the editor of the paper you're loyal to your home paper—give it every sentence in your power.

After your local newspaper, you are sure to be served by a daily paper, subscribe for The Star, terms, instead of going outside of the state, for your general news, or doing this you will only get a poor newspaper, but will help to build up the state.

Daily, 50 per year $5 per month, or $1 for three months—all advance payments. Single copies sent free.

Don't Rent! P P P P P

We will sell you land cheaper than you can rent. If you are ambitious and willing to work the land we will sell you a good quarter on crop payments. You get one half of the crop and the other half you apply on the purchase price of the land. It's just like renting land excepting that when you have raised so much grain you get a Warranty Deed to the land and it is yours, while if you rent you rent you get nothing but a receipt and a chance to move to another rented place. If we didn't have faith in our land we couldn't and wouldn't sell it in this way. Write to us for further particulars.

NEW LEADER OF THE MINERS

John F. White of Oskaloosa, Iowa, has become president of the United Mine Workers of America. The attainment of this high position is a tribute to perseverance and fortitude. For John White, at the age of two thirteen was a mule boy in the mines of Lucas county, helping support a mother and brothers and sisters.

White was born a stone's throw from the mouth of a coal mine in Coal Valley, Rock Island county, Ill., in February 21, 1870. He was the youngest son of Joseph and Catherine White. After his father died the family, in 1883, moved to Lucas county where John worked in the mines. He has been actively identified with the United Mine Workers since 1899, when the movement was fragmentary. He was chosen secretary-treasurer of District No. 12, a position he held until April 1, 1904, when he was chosen president of the district. He served as such until 1906, when he was elected president of the district.

NOW AMBASSADOR TO RUSSIA

The post of ambassador to Russia is one of the most important in the diplomatic service, owing to the interplay of Russian and American interests in the far East and to the grave questions affecting trade and politics which are constantly arising in that far-off region of the Orient. Our new ambassador to Russia, former Governor Curtis Gullis of Massachusetts, was selected for this difficult post because of his recognized ability and his broad comprehension of American interests.

Mr. Gullis is a native of Boston, a graduate of Harvard and of Geneva University and he was the recipient of several university degrees. As a young man he entered the office of the Boston Commercial Bulletin, founded by his father, worked himself upward into the editorial chair and in 1902 became sole owner of the paper.

Through his newspaper experience he became interested in politics and in several campaigns toured the country in the interests of the Republican party. In 1906 he was the champion of Roosevelt in a stupping tour of the west. Two years later he was elected lieutenant governor of Massachusetts and served three years, which were followed by his election as governor, in which post he served three terms.

Since 1909 his time has largely been taken up with business. During the Spanish-American war he served as lieutenant colonel and as inspector general of the Seventh corps, under General Fitzhugh Lee, until the break-up of the corps in Cuba. His work was praised in the report of the inspector general of the army.

WOMAN WHO OWNS BALL CLUB

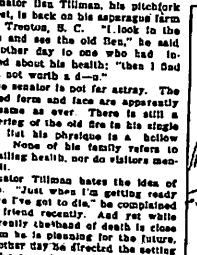

While not slighting the men fans, "Red" Brit" is practically to be the most noted and elegant of baseball's most noted figures, the "lady owner," who is personified by Mrs. Helen Britton of Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Britton has taken charge of the affairs of the club. She is not only a noted figure in baseball, but also a prominent figure in the city.

"The women, girls and children are to be catered to in League park," says Mrs. Britton, "and for that reason the elimination of the liquor bar from the park remains perpetual. My uncle established that rule for this reason, and it is my wish as strongly as mine to have it so."

"In the absence of the bar we earnestly desire, and which we will do our utmost to maintain to the pleasure of all our patrons."

SENATOR TILMAN NEAR END

Senator Tillman, his pitchfork in hand, is back on his asparagus farm near Weston, S. C., to look in the glass and see the old man. He said the other day to one who had inquired about his health: "then I had I am not a well man."

The senator is not far astray. The "aged" form and face are apparently the same as ever. There is still a flicker of the old fire in his single eye that his physique is a hollow shell. None of his family refers to his feeble health, nor do visitors mention it.

Senator Tillman hates the idea of death. "But when I'm getting ready to die I've got to be completed to a friend recently. And get well presently the head of death is close to him. He is planning for the future. The other day he directed the setting out of a new hayrack. It adds the life to a garden, in which Mrs. Tillman, in southeast and Byron, was at work that day. A good deal rather work among her flowers and vegetables than he is doing up her estate in Washington. The big house is a back being a certain price of ironclad, palmetto, purple and red in the garden and in the house.

40 YEARS A BANDIT

Old Bill Miner, Stage Coach and Train Robber.

Has Left a Criminal Trail Over the West—Now Facing Long Term in Prison for Georgia Hold-up.

Geneville, Ga.—Far back in the '50s drivers of stage coaches and stage trips back and forth across the state of California began to come to from their long mountain journeys with cash boxes rifled of their contents, sometimes a horse and, in every case with the same story. A lonely spot on the road, a single night, a highwayman and the magic words, "Hands up!" The tale never varied. For a while a "letter" came the lone highwayman came to be known, far and wide, as "California Tilly."

The exploits of "California Tilly" continued for several years. All of the robberies were in vain. Many possess hunted the lone outlaw, but he was not to be seen to bear a charge of life. It was not until 1869 that he was caught. The driver of a stage that was in from the hills back of Sacramento journeyed from his seat in front of the office early one morning in the spring of that year and unaccountably he had been held up but a few hours before. The driver of the stage had been heavy with dust and just sent in by miners. Never before had "California Tilly" dared to attack a coach so close to a town. In 20 minutes from the time the driver told his story a heavily armed posse was riding hard back over the trail. It was not long before the traces of the bandit. Before his all his hunters were clear upon him and as the sun sank behind the hills they surrounded him. The posse expected to catch. To their surprise the outlaw offered no resistance, but surrendered at his command. His trial was speedy and less than a week after his arrest he began serving a term in the penitentiary. When Miner was released he left California as rapidly as possible. The wild country of Colorado offered greater freedom. In this new field of operation his methods were the same as in the old. He was caught in November 7, 1871, and sentenced to California after an absence of twelve years, hold up the stage that ran from Bonora, Tennessee county, to Milton and secured $20,000 and the lives of two men.

Two of the men were quickly caught. Miner managed to elude the officers for several weeks, but was finally run to earth. The trial was brief and justice swift. The three robbers were sent to San Quentin prison for 25 years. It was on 20, 20 years later, before "Old Bill" Miner could again breathe the air of a free man. His good behavior for the next five years and the fact that he had no other offenses to his name won him a pardon. He was released on the 20th of his term. He was an outlaw ever since. But they were mistaken.

Toward the close of 1907 the authorities of Oregon were started by the hold-up of an express train on the Oregon Railway and Navigation company's line at Milton, N. J., in Corbett, Oregon. A year later the Canadian Pacific transportation express was stopped at Milton, June 1, 1908. The hold-up was made by Miner and two men, one of whom was with him and the other was with him. The hold-up was made by Miner and two men, one of whom was with him and the other was with him.

Less than two years later, on May 10, 1904, at eleven o'clock in the night, Miner and two men robbed the transportation express of the Canadian Pacific railway car Duran, B. C. For this crime he was sent for life to the penitentiary at New Westminster and after one year he was paroled. He was sent to the penitentiary at New Westminster and after one year he was paroled. A witty judge.

At an awake court, according to the London Times, a juror claimed exemption from serving on the ground that he was deaf. The judge held a conversation with the clerk of the court on the subject, and then, turning to the juror, he asked him looking into the juror's face, "Are you very deaf?" "Very," was the unguarded reply. "No I perceive," he rejoined to the juror, "but you are a whistler deaf. You had better go into the box. The witness shall speak now."—Case and Comment.
