SIMS SIDING

John Lane spent Sunday with his family at Sweet Blinn.

John E. Olin shipped a car of cattle to St. Paul last Tuesday. A
A. Holritz and William Bitt-son anted to Almont last Wednesday evening.

About an inch of snow fell last Monday forenoon, but ere night
it had all disappeared.

The Ladies Aid will hold their annual business meeting this (Wednesday) afternoon.

Mrs. Wyman of Almont has been visiting with Mrs. Tom Gray of this place for a few days.

The Italian laborers have been paid off now and the section crew consists of the Foreman and two laborers.

Robert Gray has spent the summer with relatives near Grand Forks. He returned home last week. Robert has grown to be quite a man while away.

The Sims and Cutler Ladies Aids combined, held their annual sale last Monday evening in Sims.
Supper was served in the evening and in spite of the inclemency of the weather the affair was a decided success. A Holritz "cried" the sale. Beside the sale of several and diverse articles, two quilts were raffled off; one was won by Miss Anna Timmerman and, the other by Joseph Jacobson.

Mrs. John Nordquist of Foreman, Mont. has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Serine Thum-son a few days this week. She left on Tuesday for Mandan, where Mr. Nordquist will join her on Wednesday, and from there they will go to St. Louis to get their daughter who is being treated there for infantile paralysis.
We understand their daughter has improved considerably since she went there and is now able to get about with the aid of crutches.

The Almont Weekly Arena
Almont, N. Dak.

Dear Sir:—
I beg to acknowledge with thanks your letter of the 25th ult.
of our eight pound turnip which was received in good order, and which we have on exhibition in our Saint Paul Office with a placard announcing where it is from.
I want to thank you very much for your interest in sending this in and if any of the local people have some four or five pound potatoes which they would like to send in for exhibition in our up-town office here, also our ticket office in Chicago. I will be very glad to place them on exhibition with the placard announcing that they are from Almont and giving the name of the grower. We are glad, at all times, to help boost North Dakota in any way, and we want to be of all the service we can.

By the way, if there is any quantity of potatoes available at Almont, weighing two pounds or over, the fact will be of much interest to our Community Department, which is on the lookout for good potatoes for our dining cars.

I will be glad to hear from you again in the future and if you know of any growers who have any considerable quantity of the product
I am sure I will be very glad to include them in our suggestions to them that their communications will be of interest to our Community Department of the Dining Cars. Samuel

Very truly yours,
A. M. CLARK

TRAGEDY OF TOMATO VINE

Practical Person Makes Discovery
After Neighbors Had Given Voice
to Their Wonderment.

Now doth the amateur agriculturist flourish and was proud at his Lathrop achievement, says the Brooklyn Eagle. One such nursed a fine tomato plant from delicate and easily infatigable to robust maturity.
With all a mother's tender care he cultivated to that point. He watered it, brushed the dust off it, pickled with it, encouraging it to better things.
Then one day a member of the family rushed into the house with glad tidings. There was a real tomato on the vine.

What an assemblage there was about that plant! The block was depopulated temporarily. Amateur agriculturists clapped on each other's backs to show the wonder. The head of the house inspected it through a magnifying glass. His spouse clasped her hands and exclaimed: "At last we shall have our own salad from our own vine." Even the watchman from a run of empty houses nearby was called to look and he remarked naturally that he "never saw such a large tomato on such a small vine."
Then there he, the man who has thirty percent per cent, who said it couldn't be and had to have a closer look, he stepped in all by himself. He very thoughtfully had been tried on with a string, and if you want to know who tips it is not the woman who it's not done.

ALMONT NEWS NOTES

Gleaned from Here, There and Everywhere.

NOTICE.

A short time ago we sent out notices to every one of our subscribers who were in arrears, and to date we have only heard from a few. Now we think that all who know they are indebted to us for the paper should come in and pay up, thereby saving us the time taken to write them and also the postage. We need the money bad and it is up to you all who owe us to pay up and at the same time help us. It costs money to get out a good newspaper and if you do not pay what you owe you are just making everybody suffer, for we cannot give a good paper and not receive our subscription money.

Pav your subscription today.

Hans Bove was an Almont shopper on Friday of last week.

O. H. Stevens was in town Tuesday on a shopping expedition.

Mrs. Fred Speth left Wednesday for an over Sunday visit at Mandan.

Order your coal of the Knutson Coal Mining Co. Leave orders at Knutson's store.

Bring in your job work and get a satisfactory job for a change. We are artists in the printing business.

The creamery will close down for the winter after this week. "Now look what YOU! went and done."

G. H. Anderson, Pete and Lawrence Nelson autoed in the south part of the county Wednesday, on business.

John D. Thomson arrived from Pavette, Idaho, last week to look after his farming interests. Mr. Thomson has a fine farm down by the river and he states that next year he will farm it himself.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner were shoppers in Almont on Saturday last. Mr. Wagner stated that they would soon move to La Porte City, Iowa, for the winter. We will all be sorry to see them leave and trust that they will return with the early spring.

August Timmerman has about the right idea, alright. He has joined an association of merchants and is giving his customers a Home Trade catalog with prices of every article that is needed in life. This catalog competes with all of the large wholesale houses and it gives a savings of 25 to 50 on one lot of goods lower than Montgomery Ward & Co. or Sears, Roebuck & Co. You order in the same way as from either of these other houses, only you have the merchant at hand if the goods prove unsatisfactory. This is a good thing and our people should profit by it and not send away for anything that is needed after this.

B. B. Haugen has just written us that he will lecture on the Campbell dry farming system in Norway on Sunday afternoon Nov. 12th at 4 o'clock, and in English on Monday, Nov. 13th at 11 o'clock. These meetings will be free and all of the farmers who can attend will learn many things of interest to them. The meetings will be held in the big hall and everybody is invited to attend. Mr. Haugen is an able speaker and it was through the interests of some of our business men that we were able to get him to come here, and it is up to the farmers to show their appreciation by turning out as there will be plenty of room and you possibly will not have occasion to hear a lecture on these lines again for some time. Remember the dates and everybody come.

Mrs. Templeton has recovered somewhat from her recent sickness.

Attorney Brainard was down Monday, as usual, and was a very busy man.

Douglas C. Filkins departed Monday for other parts of the state where he will look after his land interests.

Stanley Slavick was in town Tuesday from the DeVal country. He reports that the fall work is about through in his territory.

Get your coal for winter now at the Knutson's mine. The best coal at the cheapest price. Leave orders at C. A. Knutson and Co.'s store.

Miss Florence Dean, the reported "much married" young lady of the hustling city of Lark, was an over Sunday visitor in Almont. She was on her way home from a visit at Hebron.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stoeckel and family are moving into the house recently vacated by Cornelius Knutson and wife. Louis got tired of having to run up and down the stairs all the time.

The dippy little traveling man glanced at the menu and then at the waitress "Nice dish, little one," he began. "Yes, it is," and so was yesterday's menu. It is Ella, and I know I'm a little peach, and have pretty black eyes, and I've been here quite awhile and like the place, and I don't think I'm too nice a girl to be working in a hotel; if I did I'd quit my job, and my wages are satisfactory; and I don't know if there is a show or dance in town to-night and if there is I shall not go with you, and I'm from the country, and I'm a respectable girl, and my brother is cook in this hotel, and he weighs 200 pounds, and last week he wiped the floor with a fresh $50-a-month traveling man who tried to make a date with me. Now what will you have? The dippy little traveling man said he was not hungry and a cup of coffee and some cake would do.

CHAPTER XXVL

PROSPERITY OF THE NAVAJOS

The Navajos are today by long odds the most prosperous Indians in America. Their vast reserve offers ample pasture for their sheep and ponies, and though their flocks are a scrub lot, yielding little more than fifty to seventy cents a head in wool on the

How Filipinos Capture Monkeys.
The Filipinos catch monkeys in a very funny way. Monkeys are very fond of the meat of coconuts. They are very lazy, though, about gnawing through the outer bark, and will only do so when very hungry. The Filipinos take advantage of this weakness.

BURKE NAMES REPUBLICAN.

Appointment of Bruce to Supreme Court Well Received in No. Dak.

Grand Forks.—Probably no North Dakota has been thrust into politics so suddenly as was Dean Andrew A. Bruce of the University of North Dakota college of law when he received the appointment of justice of the supreme court to fill the vacancy created by Chief Justice C. J. Morgan's resignation.

Immediately it had been announced that Justice Bruce had quickly accepted the nomination, it was to his ability to go before the voters in the election of 1918 and be elected as his own successor. The new justice is a republican.

Judge Guy C. H. Corlies of Grand Forks, the first chief justice of the supreme court of the state, gave up the appointment of Governor Burke's appointment, likewise other leading attorneys of Grand Forks gave strong endorsement of the new appointment.

Justice Bruce was born of Scottish parents in India. At the age of six he came to America and worked his way through college. He is a graduate of the college of liberal arts and of the college of law of the state of Wisconsin. He was appointed clerk of the court in 1910, and two years later was appointed chief clerk of the law department of the Wisconsin Central railroad. In 1914 he joined the Wisconsin college of law faculty, remaining there until 1917, when he came to North Dakota.

There has been a remarkable change in the North Dakota supreme court. Judge Flak is now the only member who was in the bench four years ago. Engered resigned and Stauding was appointed to succeed him. The court was increased by a new law from three to five and Governor Burke named Carndy and Kilworth, both of whom were defeated last year by Gross and Burke. Morgan's resignation made necessary another appointment by the governor, and Dean Bruce has been four now men in the four years. Governor Burke has made four appointments to the bench in four years and two of his appointees still remain.

BIG GAIN FOR THE SLOPE.

Diarmid District Shows the Largest Gain Among the Methodists.

Minneapolis.—By R. A. Danford, district superintendent of the Methodist district of the Methodist church, returned to the city from Grand Forks, where he attended the annual conference of the state Methodist.

Dr. Danford reports that the total membership of the conference at the present time is 10,671. This is an increase of 801 members over last year, and is considered exceptionally good. In view of the fact that there have been a number of resignations from the church, the increase this year is ascribed among the various districts as follows:

Diarmid district, 150
Parson district, 123
Minot district, 81
Grand Forks district, 17.
The net gain to the conference for the past two years is 1,378 members, divided among the various districts as follows:

Diarmid district, 1,126
Grand Forks district, 123
Parson district, 101
Minot district, 25.

The statistics made by the Diarmid district, which comprises the southern slope country, is remarkable and is evidence that the southern slope is growing more rapidly than any other section, not only of the state, but of the entire northwest.

LINE TO WILTON SOON.

This Week Probably Will See Completion of Branch.

Wilton.—By the middle of this week it is expected that construction work on the new Pioneer to Wilton line of the Northern Pacific railroad will be completed. Only a few miles of steel remain to be laid, while the grading has been completed for some time. There are many signs of activity along the new extension. Farmers are hauling grain into large bins, which have been erected at several of the points along the line, these bins being placed on platforms for high and low making it comparatively easy to load the contents into the cars when the regular trains begin operating over the extension. Several elevators have been constructed in some of the new towns on the line.

A regular passenger and freight service will be established on the line at the earliest possible moment.

Bancroft Goes to Prison.

Minneapolis.—Ray Bancroft was transferred from the Minn. state penitentiary to the state penitentiary at Grand Forks, where he was given an indefinite sentence of from five to ten years. A warrant was made for a new trial, which was overruled. Sheriff Barnes says Bancroft came from Minn. (Lakota) of a respectable family. The Minn. sheriff came over and made a transfer of the prisoner.

BROOKER T. CAN'T REMEMBER

NEGRO EDUCATOR HAD A VERY POOR MEMORY.

Can't Recall Who He Was Seeking When Caught in New York Apartment House.

New York, Nov. 7.—Booker T. Washington, negro educator and founder of Tuskegee Institute, was possessed of an unfortunate memory when he took the stand to testify against Henry A. Ulrich, the white man who had been charged with having been in the possession of an apartment house on March 19. Dr. Washington could not even remember the name of the person he was seeking when he entered the building.

Ulrich was placed on trial before Justice Moss. Zeller and Ryan, in special session. He was charged with assaulting the negro educator. He was defended by James T. Callahan, one of the first contributors to Tuskegee when Washington founded the school. Mrs. Mary Alvarez, a resident in the apartment house where the assault took place testified that she told the policeman who arrested Washington that she was glad he had arrested "that burglar." She said he had been "hanging around" the house all evening.

KERN OUT OF STATE SCHOOL.

President of Ellendale Industrial Normal Resigns Position.

Ellendale.—At the meeting of the board of trustees of the state normal school, an announcement was made of the resignation of Pres. W. M. Kern and his acceptance by the board. President and Mrs. Kern are at present in Europe where Mr. Kern is paying special attention to manual training as taught in the old world.

The board of trustees of the school leave of absence for six months commencing with the close of the school year last June and in accepting his resignation the board decided never to have him in the institution. Mr. Kern has been president of the normal industrial school since 1911. He is an educator of acknowledged ability, and it was with sincere regret that individually the members of the board complied with his request and accepted his resignation.

As yet no action has been taken to fill the vacancy. In the meantime Prof. A. E. Humphrey is the acting president.

CAVALIER, N. D., A COUNTY SEAT.

Seats Pending in State Courts in Election Contest.

Minneapolis.—The supreme court affirmed the decision of Judge Sims of the district court, now a judge on the supreme bench, moving the location of the county seat of Cavalier county from Devils Lake to Cavalier. The original action was brought in district court and decided in favor of Cavalier as against Bemis, which has since been reversed. The supreme court affirmed the decision of the district court, which was granted, with the result that the former action of the high court was affirmed.

NINE BIDS FOR POSTOFFICE.

Seeks Bidding Among These Bids Government Contract.

Washington, D. C.—Nine competition among leading construction companies for the contract for the construction of the new postoffice at Ellendale, N. D., was held at the Ellendale postoffice. The proposals were received at the Ellendale postoffice. Supervising Architect Taylor, who will open these proposals, has also been in hand. Three of the bids are from Minneapolis firms and one from a St. Paul contractor. The other five have been submitted by construction companies in other large cities.

The proposals are for the construction of the building, but the contract will not include elevators or heating and ventilation apparatus. The appropriation for the completed building is $100,000.

Sentence Had Expired.

Minot.—George Robinson, of Red Lake, appeared before Justice O'Neil and was sentenced to serve ninety days in the county jail. He was fined $25, with additional five days in lieu of fine and costs for $100.00.

Robinson was arrested last July and pleaded guilty at that time, consequently his sentence was dated from July 1. He was in jail here since that time. As a result his sentence expired and he was given his liberty.

Players Get Big Sentence.

Minot.—W. C. Woods and P. S. McKenna, convicted of the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors in connection with their pool room at Minot, were sentenced by Judge Davis to five months in the county jail. $250 fine, $100 costs and an additional sixty days in case of failure to pay fine and costs. Attorney Francis Murphy asked for a day of execution pending appeal.

In the district court, a stay of thirty days was accordingly granted.
