Good Things!

IT has been our intention to each week publish a list of the many good things arriving at our store, but for one reason or another we have failed to do this. If we were to tell you about all the different articles that we carry for your wants it would more than fill this paper and you would say that we were trying to monopolize this whole territory. Merchandise and fancy eatables are arriving at our store so often that it would make our head swim to even try to remember them all.

Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware, Kitchen Utensils

are found in our big stores and we can please you all. When in need of anything in these lines just call in let us show you just what we have.

LOCAL RESUME

The Doings of Yourselfs and Others Weekly.

Remember the masquerade Ball at the Almont hall on Feb. 14th. Otto Feland was in town Wednesday of this week.

Don't fail to attend the big Market Day at Almont, North Dakota.

To make the Market Day a success every business man should do what he can to help.

O. H. Steves was a shopper on Monday of this week. Mr. Steves will prove up on his line quarter on the 15th of this month.

Fred Anderson was in town on Thursday and called at this office to renew his subscription to the Arena for another year. Thanks.

Aug. Timmerman was a Mandan visitor Saturday of this week. He reports that his daughter, Mary, is gaining strength rapidly after her operation.

Attorney Brainard was down Monday attending to business matters. Mr. Brainard desired us to state that he would not be down again until the 19th of this month.

Mrs. Margaret Hutchins and Miss Mary Casserly returned Tuesday from Mandan, where they have been spending the past two months with Mrs. Hutchins' daughter, Mrs. Emma Doisdan.

A. M. Johnson was in from the Heart River country on Monday and called at this office and renewed his paper for another year. Thanks and may more come and do likewise. We need the money.

There will be a party given at the H. D. Griswold house, at Pumpkin Ridge, on Saturday evening, Feb. 10th. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Ladies please furnish the cake. Dancing will be the order of the evening. Everybody come.

C. E. Withrow hauled us a clipping taken from a paper printed about twelve years ago, and giving the prices paid for furs. For instance, wolf is listed at 30 to 50 cents, while they now bring $3.50 per pel; mink is listed at $1.50 and their pelts now bring $8.50. Accordingly furs have taken an awful jump in the past twelve years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Lindner spent Friday and Saturday of last week at Bismarck, where Mr. Lindner went to offer encouragement to Congressman Hanna towards the passing of his bill that has been introduced, allowing three years proof to homesteaders. Mr. Hanna states that the bill has a good chance of passing and if it does, it will be the best thing for this part of the country that has ever happened and will do away with considerable of the Canadian fever that a good many of the people are exposed to at this time.

LAFOLLETTE WILL STAY IN THE RACE

FIRST STATEMENT ISSUED IN WASHINGTON BY HIS CAMPAIGN MANAGER

LOSES ILLINOIS REPORT

Medill McCormick's Call to the Illinois Progressive League Asks Forces to Turn to Roosevelt.

Washington, Feb. 7.—Senator La Follette, through his campaign manager, has announced that he will not withdraw from the race for the Republican nomination for president.

On the heels of his declaration, one of his most ardent supporters, Congressman Medill McCormick of the Illinois Progressive Republican League, issued a call to the Illinois Progressives to desert the La Follette standard and work for a solid Roosevelt delegation from Illinois in the Chicago convention.

The two statements created a flurry in progressive political circles. The first statement was made for Senator La Follette by Colonel W. L. House, his campaign manager and chairman of the national Progressive committee. It read in part as follows:

"Senator La Follette is necessary to take a few weeks' rest. This may prevent his making speeches in the states which are to hold early primaries." It requests Mr. La Follette's friends in those states to make a campaign for him, if they cannot do it in any other way, by instructing delegates to the progressive principles in general which the senator represents.

The statement concludes: "Though Senator La Follette finds his plans interfered with by his temporary indisposition, his name will be presented to the national Republican convention and debates will make an aggressive contest for his nomination and for a strong progressive platform."

"Whatever issue Senator La Follette can devote to the campaign after taking a needed rest for a few weeks will be given subject to such demands as his official duties make upon him."

Mr. McCormick's call to the members of the Illinois Progressive Republican League was made public on Thursday last. It was telegraphed to the league headquarters in Chicago and was as follows:

"Considering all the circumstances, including Senator La Follette's physical condition, in the opinion of the overwhelming majority of progressive Republicans of both houses of congress, progressives in Illinois, must unite to send Roosevelt delegates to the next national Republican convention."

MISS MARTIENA HARRISON

The engagement has just been announced of Miss Martiena Harrison, daughter of Major and Mrs. Russell Harrison and granddaughter of the former president Benjamin Harrison, to Harry A. Williams, of Middlebury, Vt. She will be remembered as the "scarlet fever baby" of the White House because while in the care there the measles was under quarantine.

SECOND TARRING TRIAL BEGUN

ATTORNEY GENERAL TO AID IN ALBERT LEA PROSECUTION.

Eleven Men Are Under Indictment for Swearing Physicians with Painful Fastness and Acid.

St. Paul, Feb. 7.—April 1st last, Dr. P. Freeman of Glenville, Minn., was invited to a bath in a mixture composed of roasting sulfur, feathers and a little carbolic acid. Assistant Attorney General Jaffe has gone to Albert Lea to assist County Attorney Newcomb in the prosecution of Freeman's assistants.

The trial, the second arrangement of the defendants, is now on. In the first trial last fall the presiding judge dismissed the case on the ground that Morgan & Neenan, Albert Lea attorneys, assisting the prosecution, were not sworn in. Dr. Freeman, who was 40 years old at the time he was arrested, has been the village doctor at Glenville for a number of years and also conducted a drug store. Several months previous to the assault he had separated from his wife as the motive for the tarring.

About 9 o'clock the night of April 10, Dr. Freeman and his clerk were on the way home when he was seized by 16 or 20 men. He managed to break away and ran back to his drug store, but was unable to get to his home until after midnight.

According to the record in the former trial he was thrown to the ground, beaten considerably and robbed of his clothing. He was severely injured and limped. These men were from the Freeborn county grand jury indicted 11 residents of Glenville for the tarring, charging them with instigating a riot and assault to the second degree. They are: Frank Douglas, Fred Johnson, Walter Knutson, William Swanson, Frank Pluck, Norman Hull, O. C. Hanson, R. T. Kirkpatrick, and Charles Dickerson.

Dr. Freeman's application for a divorce came up for hearing July 4, and was granted. It is said that there has been no cause for action. Speaker Harry B. Dunn is the attorney for the 11 defendants.

Mr. Hunt said he had been chosen by the voters to succeed the late William Hall, who died last June 30. The inauguration will be held at 12 o'clock on Feb. 12.

St. Paul, Feb. 7.—A broken call from St. Paul has come from a man named John E. Throne, who was confined in a hospital in St. Paul. He is said to have been in the city for several weeks and is now being treated by Dr. J. W. Thorne, who is a specialist in the treatment of the disease.

NIAGARA ICE BRIDGE BREAKS

MAN, WOMAN AND BOY LOSE THRILLING BATTLE FOR LIFE IN RAGING TORRENT.

THREE PERSONS PERISH

Four Others on Jam Reach Shore Safely—Thousands Witness Tragedy from Banks and Bridges.

Niagara Falls, Feb. 6.—The great ice bridge that has choked the river channel below the Cataract and the upper bridge below the falls for the last three weeks, was broken and went down the river today with its toll that death, a man and woman, Mr. and Mrs. Edwidge Stanton of Toronto, and Burrell Hancock, 17 years old, of Cleveland, Ohio.

The bridge was considered perfectly safe. For weeks the great fields of ice had been coming down the river, piling up against the barrier until it was from 20 to 30 feet thick and under the influence of our weather the great mass had become firmly anchored in the shore. The jam in some places was as thick as a quarter of a mile in breadth. For two weeks it had offered safe passage to the hardy and an "across-the-crowd" of excursionists came to view the winter wonder of the river.

Man and Boy Soom Rescue.

Somehow deep in the great whirl pool sleeps the man, identified as Mr. Stanton, who twice put aside chances of rescue to help the woman and the boy. His wife and child were the last to be rescued. The woman was rescued by a man and the boy was rescued by a man and a woman.

WOMEN AND HEALTH.

Women are beginning to realize more fully that good health is not to be found in the use of cosmetics and face powders. The appearance of health may follow such treatment, but health itself is much deeper than the surface.

Most important to the health of every woman is regularity of the bowels and digestive organs. The weary eyes, bad breath, frequent headaches, pimples and eruptions of the face, are in most every case due to constipation or indigestion, or both.

Congressman Hanna spent last week in the state booming "His Honorable Sir" Teddy Roosevelt. More of the congressmen should go home and do likewise.

North Dakota seems to be leaning towards the Roosevelt view. This is about the only way to get rid of "His Royal Nibs" J. P. Taft, so we're with you boys.

It looks like Hanna for governor of North Dakota alright. We have all had enough of Burke and Buchanan is left grazing by the wayside. This state needs an able man and L. H. is there with the goods.

If no one else wants to be treasurer of Almont county we'll take the job. We would like to have the opportunity to see what a few "good" dollars look like, and we are sure that "cowardly neckties" are not spendable in that city "The Golden Gateway to Imperial Almont County."

An exchange states that it is hard to tell which place wants the most public offices, Mandan or Minot. Minot always "chases" "whole hog or none" and Mandan is adopting the boots. Well, we bet lots of faith in that liberal quotation. "The wages of sin is death," and now is the adjusted tone to start the "muscle" for the death march. Let the Watch words be, Liberty, Courage and Forward.

If the Mandan News does not put us on their exchange list mighty soon, we'll discontinue the Arena and send them a check to date. We have never received even one sample copy.

We understand that a gentleman of this city is capable of making a noise like a tom-cat serenading his lady love on the garden fence. We are wondering if a person of this sort can really be human.

Art as it Leads to Small Boy. It was Sunday afternoon at the Art Institute and the galleries were crowded. Above the subdued hum of conversation a small voice cried out that he was dead.

"Ma" plumped him down on a couch, his little fat legs stuck straight out, and she returned to where "pa" was standing and spent a few minutes in satisfied contemplation of the picture. But such contentment did not last long. "Ma" called the young hopeful, but "pa" paid no attention, and a minute later he drew out and said, "Ma, 'ma' but 'ma' was deaf to the voice. 'Thee' he tried 'pa,' but nothing doing."

By this time the entire attention of the people in the gallery had been attracted from the pictures to the little episode that was being carried on above their heads.

Utterly unconscious of the diversion he had created, the little man called, "Ma, please, 'pa,' but still no answer, then, continued, to again tried 'pa,' but without success.

"Then, he gave a big sigh, he rubbed his eyes with his fists, yawned, and burst out with: 'Ma, say, ma, I'm stood looking at these fat pictures. Let's do downstairs and see the stuffed one.'—Chicago Tribune.
