Farmers State Bank

CAPITAL $10,000.00
Almont, North Dakota

This bank has the organization and the connections to enable it to be of service to every one within its territory and on these grounds solicits your business, promising in return fair and courteous treatment and the best terms that are consistent with sound banking.

We make farm loans.
Insurance in reliable companies. Five per cent interest paid on time deposits. Interest compounded semi-annually.

Good Things!

IT has been our intention to each week publish a list of the many good things arriving at our store, but for one reason or another we have failed to do this. If we were to tell you about all the different articles that we carry for your wants it would more than fill this paper and you would say that we were trying to monopolize this whole territory. Merchandise and fancy eatables are arriving at our store so often that it would make our head swim to even try to remember them all.

Groceries, Dry Goods, Hardware, Kitchen Utensils

are found in our big stores and we can please you all. When in need of anything in these lines just call in let us show you just what we have.

A. Timmerman,

LOCAL RESUME

The Doings of Yourselves and Others Weekly.

Fred Spath was in town the first of the week.

E. W. Hyde went down to Mandan Thursday on business matters.

Erb, that jolly Heart River farmer, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lindner were at New Salem between trains on Monday.

Louis Larson came up from Carson on Wednesday to attend the masquerade ball.

O. M. Ramsland was down from Glen Ullin to attend the dance Wednesday evening.

For Sale—Seven good milk cows. Inquire of John F. Nelson, Curlew, or address at Almont.

Geo. Arch returned on Tuesday from Oakdale where he has been working for the past two months.

Nels Becklund returned on Saturday from a business trip to the Twin Cities and Winthrop, Minn.

Louis and Walter Larson left Thursday for Mandan where they look in the Butter Makers Convention.

Miss Fisher, who has been spending the past month with Mrs. Brown, left Thursday for her home at Bismarck.

Axel Peterson was in from the farm Wednesday and renewed his subscription to the Arena. Thanks! Keep the good work up.

Louis Severson, one of our good farmers was in Almont Thursday and called on the Arena to renew his paper. Fine work and may the grass continue to grow.

Wanted—Men and women to take permanent positions, part salary, high class work, in a new world-wide organization. Write for particulars. Co-Operative Enterprise Co., 236, Endicott Building, St. Paul, Minn.

Aug. Timmerman went down to Mandan Saturday morning and returned the same afternoon with his daughter, Mary, who had been in the hospital there, following her recent operation for appendicitis. Miss Anna accompanied them up from Sims and spent Sunday with her parents.

The masquerade ball, given by the Farmers Club, in the hall in this city Wednesday evening was well attended and all enjoyed a good time. The music was excellent and the costumes were of a various assortment among which were some very swell ones. The crowd was by far the largest that attended any dance given here this winter.

The Kensington Club with their husbands, met with Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Anderson at the W. T. Cain home on Tuesday evening of this week and a pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The house was decorated with hearts and all found their partners by taking a number of arrows from the wall for the gentlemen and the ladies found cupid. The ladies were given little bags containing candy hearts and the gentlemen, after making their own bags, had to go around and ask the ladies questions, each lady answering was compelled to forfeit one of the hearts. Miss Grace Jacobson was pronounced the Queen of Hearts. A delicious lunch was served and after music and singing the party broke up and departed for their various homes.

Jesse Melton was in from his hometown Monday.

H. G. Timp was in town on Friday of this week.

Morton James was in from the farm the first of the week.

Oscar Erickson was at New Salem Tuesday on business.

C. M. Smeestad was at New Salem between trains Tuesday.

Remember that Almont will hold a big Market Day on March 2nd.

Walter Larson, of Yucra, N. D. attended the dance here Wednesday evening.

O. H. Steves made final proof before Commissioner Anderson on Friday afternoon.

We understand that one of Almont's popular young men is about to be married.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Whitney were shoppers in Almont on Thursday of this week.

A letter from Ole Billingson states that he will soon be home from the hospital at Bismarck.

Douglas C. Flikins and sister arrived on No. 7 Thursday and will spend a couple of days in the city.

Choice Beach wheat, Montana oats and all kinds of feed for sale at the Occident Elevator.

C. M. Smeestad, Agent.

Chas. Knutson was in from the farm on Friday and stated that he had been on the sick list for some time.

A. M. Jolinson, one of the old timers of the Heart River country, was in town a short time on Wednesday.

Miss Amanda Nelson, who is attending school at Bismarck, arrived home Saturday to spend a few days at home.

Rev. Alexander went down to Mandan Monday to attend a meeting of the Presbytery. He returned home on Tuesday afternoon.

Ladies—All women interested in women's world-wide organization. Send address for free copy of The World Weal. Co-Operative Enterprise Company, 236 Endicott Bldg., St. Paul, Minn.

Tom Duncan was in Monday and called at this office and paid his subscription to the Arena. Mr. Duncan is one of our best farmers also having land in Iowa, but he states that North Dakota is good enough for him.

March 2nd, 1912, will be Market Day in Almont. Every farmer that has anything that he would like to dispose of is requested to bring the same in and it will be sold on the above day. Anything from a dozed clothes-line to a threshing machine will be sold. Our merchants have decided to each sell one article at cost on that date and bills will be circulated stating what it will be in a short time. Now don't forget the date and watch for the large bills.

IN STEEL INVESTIGATION

Tails of Lease of Ore Lands to Steel Corporation and Freight Rates.—Estimated 500,000,000 Tons of Ore in Ground.

Washington, Feb. 14.—James J. Hill, chairman of the board of directors of the Great Northern railroad company, was subpoenaed to appear before the Stanley special committee to testify regarding the leasing of big ore properties in the states range by the steel corporation.

He laid principally of the creation of the Lake Superior company, which, as he declares, brought into existence for the entire benefit of the shareholders of the Great Northern railroad company.

His testimony was given in a room of the hotel where he is staying, and he was accompanied by a large number of witnesses, including members of the committee, and other commercial organizations which he has named as having been combined to make the Lake Superior company, which, according to his testimony, was done solely by himself and later presented to the Great Northern stockholders after the fact.

He declared that the steel corporation, acting through its officers and other commercial organizations which he has named, had been combined to make the Lake Superior company, which, according to his testimony, was done solely by himself and later presented to the Great Northern stockholders after the fact.

DENY KIMMEL HOSPITAL TALE

CLAIMS HE WAS SENT TO INSTITUTION AFTER BEING BLUGGED.

Former Railroad Claim Agent Denies He Had Defendant Treated There.

St. Louis, Feb. 14.—Three witnesses were examined and four depositions were read in the trial of the Kimmel insurance case in the United States district court. One of the witnesses who it was thought by the attorneys for the insurance company, could prove that he obtained the admission of Leonard A. Kimmel into a local hospital without Kimmel's name being registered, failed to substantiate his claim.

The witness, William E. Jones, formerly general claim agent of a railroad, who was raised with Kimmel, testified that he saw Kimmel for the last time in July, 1902, and that he did not know him treated in a hospital here.

James J. White, the claimant in the case, has said he was treated in the hospital without his name being registered after he was blugged on the streets of St. Louis, less than a week after he left a hotel in Kansas City.

James, as did latter E. Schuck of St. Louis, testified that the claimant was not Kimmel, and said that of meeting the claimant, who did not recognize him.

Schuck knew Kimmel in Arkansas, Ky., Kan., where Kimmel was cashier of a bank and they spent their recreation hours together.

The deposition taken was given by former residents of St. Louis. Mark Koch, resident of Chicago, deposed that the claimant was not Kimmel, who lived in his early life in St. Louis.
