Theodore Petand after looking over business matters in this place Monday, left for Mandan on urgent business.

Have your job done at the Arena printing plant. It is a hour institution and encourages the catalog home-mail-order-house business. Give us a trial.

Mrs. E. E. Templeton is entertaining her mother and sister, Mrs. H. A. and Miss Harger, of Sanborn, Iowa, who arrived here on Wednesday.

Business is picking up along all lines is the report of all the farmers who make the crops country. In many places the business has almost assumed its normal condition of 18 months ago.

Monday's rain was one of those which add much to the value of the growing crops and almost every one in this vicinity is wearing the smile of general satisfaction over the crop conditions.

Monday morning the board of township equalization of taxes met in this place and held its annual session. As no important Eugene Westre's gang of bridge builders is here at present, putting in three new concrete bridges for the N. P. near Sims. The gang expects to be here for several weeks more. Robert Gray has recently joined the crew.

Farewell Party.
A farewell party was given Mrs. P. R. Peterson last Sunday by a large number of her friends. She leaves for Mandan in a few days to join her husband who has charge of the first section out of Mandan on the N. P. on the north branch.
The Peterson Family can be numbered among the pioneers of Sims, and the bonds of friendship which have been formed during the many years of their sojourn here will be hard to sever. We go join in wishing them success and happiness in their new home.

protests on the levy were made the board quickly disposed of the matter and adjourned.

A. J. Girard and Frank H. Handbeck of Kankakee, Illinois, who have been in this vicinity helping C. R. Wright with his property on Mt. left for Dickinson the first part of the week to seek more work.

John Bahr, post master at Bahr, and his brother-in-law, A. J. Teeter, of Bismarck, were Almont visitors Wednesday, and before leaving for home had their names put on the Arena list for a year.

Amunda Nelson who has been attending school in Bismarck during the last year, returned home to Almont, the first of the week for the summer vacation. All her friends are glad to see her back and welcome her as a valuable addition to the younger social set.

There is an unconfirmed rumor that the Almont Creamery will soon open for business and that this source of revenue for the village will once more be in operation. The opening of the local institution is one of the things that will give this village more prestige among the farmers than anything else.

C. A. Knutson.

I am a candidate for the republican nomination to the legislature from the 47th legislative district, and if I am nominated and elected to the office, I will go to Bismarck unhampered by any pledges to parties or factions, excepting the pledge freely given the people of the district that I will go to the legislature to represent them and their best interests.

C. A. Knutson, Candidate for Legislature, 47th District

In asking the voters to support me at the primary I feel bound to state my platform, which is that I stand for the initiative and referendum, and all progressive legislation that will advance the interests of the 47th legislative district and of the entire state.

I was not brought out by any party or faction nor did I enter the race with any other motive than to serve the people of this district and the commonwealth, and it is upon this platform that I place my name before the voters on the 26th day of June, 1912, and will abide by their decision.
