LOCAL RESUME

The Doings of Yourselves and Others Weekly

Mrs. W. T. Cain was a Bismarck visitor two days last week.

William Ellington of Sims, was an Almont visitor Tuesday.

W. Edward Sherwood spent a couple of days in New Salem, visiting friends.

L. G. Stoeckel and wife came home Tuesday afternoon from Bryant, South Dakota.

Mrs. August Timmerman delightfully entertained the Keisigton club, last Thursday afternoon.

E. Duke Naven of Waterloo, Ia. arrived in this village, Tuesday, to look after his property interests in this vicinity.

Mrs. Ben C. Reed who has been visiting friends near Plain for a few days, returned home the first of the week.

Miss Jacobson who has been visiting friends in St. Paul for a few days, returned to Almont, Saturday last.

A. Johnson spent Monday in the capitol city visiting friends and incidentally taking in the Burne's circus.

J. R. Sherwood transacted business at Glen Ullin in the front of the week. He returned home Wednesday morning on No. 8.

Friday a number of Almont people went to Lark to take in the Second Annual Celebration of the founding of the busy little city of Lark.

Kenyon post office, located 12 miles south of Almont, has been opened by the post department, and John Kennedy has been appointed post master.

G. H. Anderson and E. Duke Naven drove in Carson Wednesday to look over some real estate located in that vicinity. They returned home Friday night.

C. A. Knutson is very busy now a day calling on the voters of the 47th legislative district. And in all parts of the district the people are rallying to his standard.

Reports coming from Bismarck, state that Ole Ellingson who was operated on for appendicitis, is improving daily and will soon be in his old position in the New State.

Lawn tennis is the favorite pastime of the young people of this village. Some are becoming expert in the use of the racket—but few care to face Bill Sherwood on the courts.

In another column will be found an open letter to the public and in it will be noted how Hon. J. T. Nelson's name happens to be in the democratic column on the primary election ballot. Read it.

Saturday afternoon, the stockholders of the creamery association will hold a meeting at the creamery building and it is likely the future of the creamery plant will be decided.

Ed Wuerst, of Mandan, the republican candidate for the nomination to the office of county auditor, was in this city the first of the week looking after his political fences.

County Judge J. C. Johnson was an Almont visitor Wednesday and a part of Thursday in the interests of his renomination to the office of county judge. As no opposing candidate has entered the lists Mr. Johnson has easy sailing.

George F. Ford who appears to the nomination to the office of clerk of the district court, is making withdrawal from the campaign among the registered voters of the county working up favorable sentiment for his candidacy. He is in as hour in this place the first of the week.

Miss Helen Register who has been the guest of Miss Naomi Anderson at G. H. Anderson's home for the past two weeks, left for her home in Bismarck Thursday morning.

Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Cain have been entertaining Mrs. Bowman & children of Glen Ullin for the past week. At the end of her visit here Mrs. Bowman will go to Underwood to make her home in the future.

Miss E. W. Hyde and son who have been in the Twin Cities, for the past three weeks, so the latter could take treatment for spinal meningitis, returned home the latter part of last week. The little boy is much improved and hopes entertained of ultimate recovery.

Frank P. McQuillan, the young candidate for register of deeds, is making a strong campaign and the prospects look very encouraging. If you want a change this year, Mc Q is the man that seems to have the lead and will no doubt land the nomination.

Rev. Robert Alexander left Almont the first of the week for Kinross, Burleigh county, where he is to conduct special services for a week. He announced before leaving, that there would be no services Sunday night June 24, and for the June 30, he will announce thru the Arena.

There is no doubt about the popularity of Frank P. McQuillan's candidacy for the republican nomination to the office of register of deeds. Everywhere Mc goes he is making friends for his candidacy, and his pleasing personality and broad-minded views of things public and political, have won for him many people who will vote for him in the primary election.

H. H. Harmon, county auditor and a candidate for the republican nomination to the office at the primary election, Wednesday June 20, spent one day, this week, meeting the voters. From all parts of the county reports are coming of the popularity of his candidacy coupled with the efficient administration of the office, makes his nomination almost sure.

Many favorable reports are heard, coming from all parts of the county, on the ability of M. Packard to the office of register of deeds. During the time of his office by M. Packard, the county has grown from a barren waste to a paying place for a number of years. With such reports in view before the people, it is likely they wish to return him to office.

The catalog of the North Dakota School of Forestry located at Bellevue, has just been issued from Dotliene Court Press and in a creditable piece of work. There are several views of the school and the surroundings which add much to the advertising which adds much to the value of the book.

The catalog sets forth the points of the institution and the history of the establishment.

Ted Stovek, clerk of court, and candidate for renomination to the office of the republican ticket, was

GAUDIOUS MAN MEANS BOLT AT START

ROOSEVELT MEN DECIDED NOT TO RECOGNIZE VOYER OF CONTESTED DELEGATES

WIRE TAFT OF ACTION

Only 840 of 1,000 delegates to the Chicago convention will be recognized by Roosevelt.

Chicago, June 19.—The Roosevelt delegates to caucus voted that, in the case of the meeting, that nothing less than 840 delegates would be recognized as a majority of the republican national convention.

This was construed by the delegates present as meaning, as one of them puts it, "a bolt at the start."

The meeting adopted the text of a telegram to President Taft appealing to him to disavow the action of the national committee in its defeat of the Roosevelt contest.

The telegram held up the caucus in order to get the approval of Senator Dixon.

Note Votes Enough in Control.

The delegates were frankly told by the leaders, it is said, that they did not have enough votes to control the convention, as constituted by the national committee delegates.

It was then that the Roosevelt delegates decided on this drastic action.

The midnight conference completely changed the situation from what it had been earlier in the evening.

Col. Roosevelt's speech at the Auditorium theater giving his followers to fight "the Roosevelt issue" was the previous approval given his fighting words outweighed the counsel of the more moderate members of the Roosevelt faction.

Senator Kenyon was routed out of bed after midnight and called into the Roosevelt conference.

The latest program was submitted to him and he expressed the view that it was a fair one, that the 10 Cummins delegates from Iowa would support the proposition.

He also urged the 10 La Follette delegates from Wisconsin and North Dakota would also. He said he believed it would be a good idea in the convention to give the people a choice for a "sober second thought."

All things the Wisconsin delegates in was in caucus. It was surmised that they had the Roosevelt position under consideration.

The Taft headquarters did not hear of the action of the Roosevelt delegates until some time after and no plan had been made to combat the new line of attack. It was believed, however, that they would not entertain the resolution on the parliamentary ground that he had no other duty to perform as chairman of the national committee than to call the convention to order and present the choice of the national committee for temporary chairman.

Grain Men in Session.

Value of Good Highways Tabled Before Managers.

Timothy Woodrug, former lieutenant governor of West Virginia, is believed to have supported Roosevelt because he thought the national committee had oversteered the boat, pushing away delegates from the coast.

BEER TRUST IS DISSOLVED

NATIONAL COMPANY, A $18,000,000 CONCERN, WILL DISSOLVE.

Packers Name Aug. 1 for Business Wind-up of Asset Disposal.

Washington, June 19.—Attorney General Wickham was advised that the National Packing company voluntarily agreed to be dissolved by the beer trust, they will advise the department of justice to compel its liquidation.

Mr. Wickham was notified of the "beef trust" intention to dissolve by James A. Foster, assistant in the department of justice.

Representative of the National Packing company, according to an official statement by the attorney general, had informed Mr. Wickham that it was the purpose of the Armour, Swift and Morris interests, which jointly own and operate, to wind up its business and dispose of assets.

The packers, it is said, expect to have ready a definite plan by Aug. 1, or in case they find themselves unable to agree upon a basis of liquidation, they will advise the department of justice of that fact by the date mentioned.

It is intimated that, in the latter event, the proposed bill will under the Sherman law be filed.

This move follows several governmental attacks upon the "beef trust."

The National Packing company is a $18,000,000 corporation. As it is owned by the big Armour, Swift and Morris interests and according to the government's contentions, the company is the agency for controlling the meat industry.

OIL OFFICIALS TESTIFY

James A. Moffatt, Vice President of Standard Company, Testifies.

New York, June 19.—James A. Moffatt, vice president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey, former head of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, and a director and officer of the Standard Oil company, testified before the dissolution of the trust, was questioned at the hearing of the suit brought by the Standard Oil company against the Standard Oil company to prevent the Standard Oil company from throwing out the "beef trust" at the annual election in Indiana.

Samuel Undermyer, counsel for the Standard Oil company, asked Mr. Moffatt if he had received any information from the Standard Oil company in the dissolution. The witness replied that he had.

"And you vote in every election of the former subsidiaries," he was asked.

"And when the subsidiaries were set up, you and the other officers got the Standard Oil company out of the subsidiaries," he was asked.

Mr. Moffatt did not remember, but later admitted that some of the directors of the Standard Oil company were officers and directors of the various former subsidiaries.

He said that the Standard Oil company might have made such arrangements.
