Notice to Arena Patrons

Beginning with the current number of the ARENA we will be published on a 4 page paper, and will reduce the subscription price to $1.00 from this date.

We regret very much the necessity of having to cut the size of the ARENA to the present form, but can only state that the advertising patronage will not warrant the publication of a larger paper. We do say, however, when the advertising reaches a point that will help to carry the additional expense incurred by the enlarging the paper, we will immediately increase the size.

Local Miscellany

Copies of the law relating to the spread of Noxious Weeds by the threshing machines and the conveniences hauling grain, can be had at the Arena office. adv.

This evening at Sims the ladies of the aid society will give a big chicken pie supper to raise funds to defray the cost of repairs on the church. A good time is anticipated.

The first of the week the Almont Cafe again opened for business, & everyone is hoping that it will receive a good lot of business.

Miss Tillie Larson who has been employed at the Merchants hotel for the past several weeks, returned to her home west of town, the first of the week.

Miss Eva Dahl who has been a Glen Ullin client for several days, returned to Almont Monday.

The first of this week the editor of the Arena was the recipient of a brace of chickens that when prepared for the table were so fine as to make a Methodist preacher's mouth water. The donor of these fine chickens was Mrs. E. M. Wilman, and the Arena lacks for words to adequately express its thanks.

Best day was in from the Heart river country the first of the week.

From the last reports received, it may reasonably be inferred that the county divisionists are so deeply buried beneath the avalanche of anti votes that it will take two years to dig themselves out.

John Thomas who is employed at present at the penitentiary as a guard, came to Almont Monday, in order to be here for the election. After a two days' visit with friends and relatives, he returned to his duties Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Silvernall visited the former's parents at Taylor, over Sunday. They returned home Monday morning on No. 3.

Mrs. J. R. Sherwood and H. M. Silvernall, and Miss Clara Bond were New Salem visitors the middle of the week.

G. Peters representing the Royal Typewriter Co., who makes his home in Fargo, spent a couple days in Almont the latter part of the week, looking after business matters and placing a couple of "unchines".

Ask for votes with every purchase at Timmerman's store.

A. M. Johnson of the Heart River country, transacted business in this place the latter part of the week.

There is a Grain to be a Big time in Almont, the 15th when the duce commences.
