WAR PREPARATIONS DENIED BY POWERS

DELIVERED, HOWEVER, ISSUES OF PEACE OR WAR HANG UP BLENDER THREAT

MAY SEIZE ADVANTAGE

Fears Turkey May Profit by Embolment of Other Countries—Fighting and Cholera Continue.

London, Nov. 27.—The strategic angle was made by all the European governments to deny reports of warlike preparations and to represent the political situation as peaceful and satisfactory. It is an indication of how slender a thread the issues of peace and war in Europe now hang.

The danger sign, however, from the conflicting interests of Austria, Serbia and the other powers, but from the possibility that Turkey, following the traditional policy of profiting by the embolment of the great powers, may adopt an irreconcilable attitude in the peace negotiations.

Beyond the fact that the plot to murder the president of the United States has not been abandoned, no one whether an armistice has been arranged. There appears to be a suspension of operations at the embolment of the great powers may adopt an irreconcilable attitude in the peace negotiations.

ACCUSED MAN TESTIFIES IN HIS OWN DEFENSE.

Presiding Judge Says Efforts Have Been Made to Influence Him.

Fort Worth, Tex., Nov. 27.—John Deal Reed, on trial for the alleged murder of A. G. Doyle, Sr., began his testimony in his own behalf, but had not progressed far when he was interrupted by the prosecuting attorney for the doct.

Reed told of his boyhood friendship for A. G. Doyle, Jr., of their intimate relations in after years and of how he learned from his wife that she and Doyle had planned to elope.

Mrs. Doyle asked that he give his consent. A family conference followed. It was testified, when it was determined Mrs. Doyle's mind was unbalanced and she was sent to a sanitarium at Fort Worth, where she remained with the younger Doyle. At this point Reed adjourned.

The killing of A. G. Doyle, Sr., and his son, came as a surprise to the doct. A. W. Waver, who testified as an eye-witness to the shooting of the elderly man.

Presiding Judge Reagen announced that he would read no communications coming to him through the mail with reference to the shooting. He said he was being deluged with letters bearing on the trial, most of them entirely written with the intention of influencing him, and he would not allow his jury to see any of his mail.
