Loss an illusion.

James C. McRaymond, who investigated the tobacco trust for the government, thereby bringing on a lot of things, says that just after he started practicing law in a small town down in Tennessee, a few years ago, stout hillman came into his office one day and announced that he desired to sue a neighbor for $10,000 damages.

Aged Survivors of Our Wars.

I am informed by the United States pension office that the last soldier of the rebellion will die in 1918. That is the estimate made by those who make a study of vital statistics. If the last veteran survives until that date he will have lived ninety years after the surrender of Lee.

The PHANTOM ARMIES

By T. C. HARBAUGH

No drum-beats in the valley And no bugles on the hill, Where the summer breezes daily All the battle plain is still. When the stars come out at even, Far above the glistening dew, There's a phantom flag in heaven, There are armies in the blue.

Comes to them a call to duty From the phantom camps of yore, Where the roses in their beauty Deck the far-off river's shore, Do they dream of comrades sleeping, Where the winds are wild and free— Where the Raptian is sweeping And where lips the Tennessee?

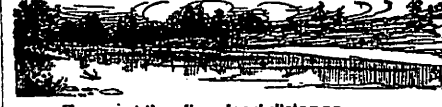

O, the pity and the splendor Of the thinned, immortal lines! Soon the Union's last defender Will be camping 'neath the pines; Where no hand heart lips can sever, And the shadows long are thrown, Where the drum is hushed forever, And no bugle blast is blown.

They are marching yet in glory Where Potomac's waters shine, And the old camps tell the story Of the heroes of the line, By the peaceful winding river Spectral sentries watch the foe, And their challenge sounds forever In the Land of Long Ago.

Seel a line of blue is marching, There's a drum-call in the street, And the heavens, overarching, Seem the veterans to greet, They are marching slowly, slowly, As the flowers to them nod, And their remnant grows more holy As the years pass on to God.

From out the dim, dead distance Charge the squadrons, blue and gray, There is none to make resistance, For they vanish like the spray, Not a cry, no word is spoken, As they hurry by to catch the breeze, And the silence is unbroken Among the tall and somber trees.

COUNTRY WILL NEVER FORGET

No Possibility That Memorial Day Can Ever Lose Its Great and Holy Significance.

It has often been said that with the passing of the soldiers of the great war, the stars of Decoration Day would gradually die out. Predictions have been made that the day would lose its significance and its hold upon the American people as they would disappear from the war or today.

The argument is specious, but it will not hold good in the test of experience. The day set apart for honoring the dead heroes of the nation has long stood a bold sign to the heart and conscience, and the inspiration of the country. It respects no natural need. A people freed by war and saved from freedom by another, have a terrible struggle and never cease to feel the claim of fighting patriots to special honor, however far their deeds of daring and sacrifice may drift into the past. Ancestors may be passed on to our children unremembered—Exchange.

WATER MAKES A DIFFERENCE

Use of Hints or Soft is Something for Serious Consideration When Cooking is in Order.

All cooks do not understand the difference between hard and soft water. Hard water, containing lime and iron, will not boil rapidly because these substances hinder vegetable matter from softening. A onion, boiled in soft water, will be tender and soft, while a onion boiled in hard water, will be tough and hard. The addition of salt often checks this, as in the case of onions, causing the vegetable to retain its peculiar flavoring principle, besides such nutritious matter as might be lost in soft water. For softening the "fibre" of meat, or making it tender, soft water, unsalted, and kept at rest in the best, for it much more readily penetrates the tissue, but for boiling, where the juices should be retained, soft water, or water with salt, is preferable. The meat should be put in while the water is boiling, so as to seal up the pores at once.

If you are in doubt about the water, you can ascertain its quality. Hard water will not make a soda crystal, while soft water will. One acquainted with the nature of the cooking water, can ascertain yourself accordingly in cooking.

GOOD FOR AFTERNOON TEA

Daily Chocolate Cakes That Has the Improvement of the Best French Cooks.

A little French chocolate cake which comes from a New Orleans bakery is called "petit chou au chocolat." Put a quarter of a pint of hot water in a small saucepan with two ounces of butter, and stir until the butter is melted and gradually two ounces and a half of finely sifted flour and stir quickly until the mixture is quite stiff.

Take the saucepan from the fire and stir the contents for about ten minutes, then add two eggs, one at a time. Beat the mixture up with a wooden spoon and put it aside to cool. Butter a baking tin or use the pan on it with a teaspoon in small round tins, plum size. Bake about twenty minutes in a moderate oven. When each tin will with whipped cream flavored with vanilla. Before serving glass each separately with chocolate icing.

Revival of the Quilt.

From unbleached muslin cut squares to be used for a foundation on which to build the design. For instance, if you choose to piece a quilt, cut a piece of muslin a plain color in the shape of a quarter circle and stitch it across one corner of the square. Four patches radiate from this to form a half fan, which, when joined to the next block, completes the semi-circle and the fan.

When the required number of blocks are finished, join them together, forming the large top of the quilt; then piece the rest in its own part. Then pour in boiling water to cover. Have ready tender carrots, celery, turnip and onion cut in uniform pieces, add to the meat together in a cupful or more of tomato and a little parsley. These go in about twenty minutes before serving. When done and tender add a little green pepper, chicken slightly with flour, season and serve.

Cracker Puffs.

Split six crackers and soak them for half an hour in cold water. They will be twice their usual size. Take them out with a skimmer, being careful not to break or crack them, and put them in a hot oven, the inner side up. Butter tops of crackers and place in hot oven. The oven must be very hot or the crackers will not puff. In half an hour they should be well puffed and brown. Serve them with any kind of stewed or pressed fruit with whipped cream, if desired, but they are nice without the cream.

Quaker Muffins.

One cup scalded milk poured on two-thirds cup rolled oats. Let stand five minutes, add three tablespoons sugar, one-half teaspoon salt, one tablespoon lard or melted butter. Stir in 1 1/2 cups flour, four teaspoons baking powder. Mix thoroughly, and use well-beaten eggs. Bake in hot greased steamer pans twenty to twenty-five minutes.

Some Cakes and Mince.

The best way to warm up a joint is to wrap it in thickly greased paper and let it covered while in the oven. By leaving it covered, the steam keeps the meat from becoming hard and dry.

To hurry the cooking process of any thing cooked in a boiler, add salt to the water in the outer boiler.

Mrs. L. A. Nelson.

Support. Put one tablespoon butter and one tablespoon current jelly in a frying pan over a hot stove. When the butter is melted, add the eggs, then add dry rice and stir almost ready to burn. Remove to a hot platter and garnish with parsley.

AT LEAST GOT RID OF IT

Defendant Had Not Strictly Obeyed Court's Order, but Neither Was He in Contempt.

Murray L. Pennell, a defendant in the Indianapolis dynamiting case, caused a little diversion in court proceedings while under cross-examination. Pennell had been vigorously chewing gum while on the stand.

"If you'll take your gum out of your mouth we'll get along faster—we wouldn't be wasting so much time," said United States Attorney Miller.

"Yes, take your chewing gum out of your mouth," commanded Judge Anderson.

Pennell sat in the witness chair apparently not making any effort to obey the order of the court.

"What don't you hear the order?" asked Miller, after there had been a lapse in the testimony for fully a minute and Pennell had made no visible movement.

"I swallowed it," mumbled Pennell. Court proceedings were suspended, while Judge Anderson stepped forward in his swivel chair and beamed vigorously.

HANDS BURNING, ITCHING

905 Lowell, Chicago, Ill.—The trouble began by my hands burning and itching. I rubbed and scratched them till one day I saw the red sores coming out. My hands were disfigured and swollen, and troubled me so that I could not sleep. They were cracked and when the small sores broke a white matter would come out. I could not do any hard work; if I did the sores would come out worse. For two years nobody could cure my hands, until one day I thought I would try the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I used warm water with the Cuticura Soap and after that I put the Cuticura Ointment on my hands twice a day for about five or six months when it was cured. (Signed) Sam Marston, Nov. 22, 1911. Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 25¢ Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. 1, Boston." Adv.

The Effects of Opiates.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these agents cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are liable to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable hiccups, dyspepsia and lack of staying power are usually cured by opium or narcotic to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only when it is absolutely necessary.

The administration of Anodynes, Drogs, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill do them with impunity with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fischer. No Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fischer.

WOMAN SHOULD NOT WALK

So Was So. Ill—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Penrose, Mich.—"A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement. I had backache, my head ached, I could not get on my feet, I could not walk across the floor and sit down. I was nervous all the time. I felt discouraged as I had taken everything I could get and was no better. I began taking Lydia E. WOMAN HAD MADE A MISTAKE

Cindy Claimed Carter Was Her Brother, but She Was Willing to Take Another Look.

The woman left the girl arranging the dinner table and went to the kitchen for a glass of water. A negro was sitting in the kitchen rocker. Indignant, the woman hurried back.

"Cindy," she demanded, "what have I told you about having your focus in the kitchen?"

"Laws, miss, he ain't no boss! Why, he's my brother!"

Somebody mollified, the woman went back to the kitchen and said:

"So you are Cindy's brother?" she said kindly.

"Law bless yo' no, miss," he answered. "I ain't no 'laxton' 'all to her. I've jes' kep'p' company with her."

The woman sought a great relief.

"Cindy," she asked sternly, "why did you tell me that the man was your brother? He says he's no relation."

"Cindy looked agast."

"Yo' de Laws, miss, he ain't no boss! He say 'dat yo' stay here a milt' an' lemme go look ag'in.'"—Chicago Record-Herald.

Valuable Beetle Now.
Not long ago a Washington scientist, an enthusiastic student of natural history, captured a fine specimen of beetle. On reaching home he, in a moment of haste, placed the beetle in a library table with his diamond scrips.

When he returned to the library from his dinner, he found the captive not so loose and was trying about with the diamond pin glancing from his back.

Man and bug made a rush for the window at the same time. The beetle got there first and triumphantly sallied away, barely eluding the scientist's hand. Neither bug nor pin has since been seen.

"LIKE MAGIC"
New Food Makes Wonderful Changes.

When a man has suffered from dyspepsia so many years that he can't remember when he had a natural appetite, and then hits on a way out of trouble he may be excused for saying "It acts like magic."

When it is a simple, wholesome food instead of any one of a large number of so-called remedies in the form of pills, it is more than likely to act as though a sort of miracle has been performed.

A Chicago man, in the delight of restored digestion, puts it in this way: "Like magic, this food restores me in the manner in which Grape-Nuts relieved me of poor digestion, coated tongue and loss of appetite, of many years standing."

"I tried about every medicine that was recommended to me, without relief. Then I tried Grape-Nuts on the suggestion of a friend—By the time I had finished the fourth package, my stomach was all right, and for the past two months I have been eating with a relish anything not before me. It is something that is never usable to do previously for years."

"An stronger than ever and I could see the spots of my complexion. It really wonderful! It builds up the entire body as well as the brain and nerves." Name given by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

BURKE MAY ENTER N. D. RACE

Federal Treasurer Must Retire to Become Party Candidate, Some Democrats Say.

Fargo—Former Governor John Burke and Congressman Holmstrom are likely to figure in the next United States senatorial race in North Dakota. Holmstrom, of Groesbeck and Attorney General Miller.

For many months it has been generally understood that Attorney General Miller was ambitious to control the senatorial race in North Dakota. Recently it was rumored that Congressman Holmstrom would enter the race if Miller became a candidate.

Should those three enter the race, the progressive probably would place a man in the contest. This would split the anti-Democratic vote into four parts and the high man might not receive more than a third of the total vote.

An element of the Democratic party seeks to push Chairman McArthur of the Democratic state central committee into the race for governor.

Just what position Burke would take in the matter is problematical. As treasurer of the United States he is now receiving a salary larger than the senators are paid, and he might prefer the retaining of that position.

The entering of a contest in which the conclusions are by no means certain.

PROOFS BEING CONTESTED.

Federal Authorities Fight Issuance of Patents to Homesteaders Whose Claims Are Questionable.

Schafer—The government is contesting the many records of land titles in this county and United States Commissioner Snyder has been talking testimony in the case.

Fred M. Stouffer had a claim near the town of Valley City. He failed to reside on the land the necessary time. Frank Nugent, of Fairview, is charged with fixing on his claim when he was only 15 years old.

Daniel B. Smith made a similar proof, got a loan on his certificate and disappeared. The government contends that legal proof had not been made by him. James A. Holo, of Sibley, is held not to be a citizen of the United States. He was born in this country, but when he was 15 years old, he accompanied his father to Canada and resided there until he was 21, after which he returned to the United States and died on this homestead.

If the government's contention is sustained he may be automatically declared his intentions and file again.

Fargo, N. D., May 25.—Mrs. Luther McCarty, wife of the late World champion of the world, went to Valley City in response to a message from William McCarty, manager of the late fighter, telling her to meet him.

At Valley City Mrs. McCarty joined "Sluggo" McCarty and party, who were talking the body of the champion to his old home at Piquet, Ohio, where she was met by McCarty, who will receive her late husband's share of the receipts of the fight, which are expected to amount to several thousand dollars.

Haverly, N. D., May 25.—Wells county boys and girls killed 43,748 gophers this spring, that is, the total number of rats presented to County Auditor J. F. King retained full possession of his senses five hours after he had been wandering near the site of the wrecked car from the site of the tragedy. He returned to his home and found his wife dead.

READY FOR ANDERSON CASE

Trial of Bank Clerk for Pink Murder Promised to Juries.

Wahburu—With the date of the trial of W. P. Anderson, former clerk of the bank here, for the murder of P. F. Funk, cashier of the same institution, rapidly approaching, the stage is rapidly being cleared for the trial. It is one of the most noted criminal cases in the history of the state. Anderson's case is scheduled to come before the district court which convenes here July 6.

Judge May Call Substitutes.
Judge W. E. Nusselt, who will preside at this trial, is not expected to hear the case. For years he carried on an extensive legal practice at Wahburu and had personal business dealings with the principals in the case. It is believed that he will call in Judge W. C. Crawford of Dickinson to preside over the trial.

Anderson's trial practice at Wahburu is also expected that a change of venue will be taken from McLean county, probably to Bismarck, to avoid any touch of local sentiment.

Prosecution by Grand Jury will be the chief attorney for the defense. State's Attorney C. P. Macdonald will be assisted by Aubrey Lawrence of the firm of Hall, Watson, Young and Grand.

Although there is a deep undercurrent of feeling regarding the case, the residents of this community are manifesting an extraordinary interest in the trial in commenting on the case. Both the murdered man and the accused were so prominent here that Anderson has so many relatives here that little is known about Anderson who has been incarcerated since the day of the mysterious shooting April 14, bears up well under his close confinement in the county jail. This fact, however, it has been impossible to secure a statement of any nature from him.

To Account for Money.
Detectives and county officers have been pursuing their investigation of the case minutely. It is stated that one of the questions they are puzzling over is to account for the large amounts of money Anderson is said to have spent during the past two years. Anderson's expenditure were greatly exceeded his salary income is generally conceded. His wife inherited some money, but this sum is said to be very small. There has been no record of Anderson's income.

Nothing has been disclosed, however, to show that Anderson had involved with or used any of the bank's funds money which was shot Punk to cover up the transaction.

For a time the detectives worked on the theory that Anderson might have formed an alliance with a gang of eastern counterfeiters, who are said to have been passing through the bank. This theory has been followed so long without any developments, however, that it is now given little credence.

The wife of the murdered cashier, with her family is still living in the home where the tragedy occurred. She will remain here until she has closed up her personal and business affairs, and probably until after Anderson's trial.

GRAIN OUTLOOK VERY GOOD.

Early Crop Prospects in North Dakota Satisfactory After Recent Rains.

Grand Forks—Heavy rains have fallen over the entire northern part of North Dakota during the last week and spring seeding and planting conditions are satisfactory. Cool weather gave way to warmer weather and, with practically all of the seed in the ground, the early crop outlook could not be more optimistic.

With very little rain during the early part of the spring, the farmers have been able to plow most of their ground, the lack of it planting being generally satisfactory. General reports on the corn acreage indicate a gain of about 50 per cent. This condition applies to practically all of the northern western counties and in a few of the southern counties.

Flax has fallen off in the eastern district, but has held about even in the western district. Potatoes have fallen off in the north, but wheat seems to have remained about stationery. The early fear of a great shortage in the wheat acreage has been overcome by the favorable spring conditions.

Alleged Embezzler Is Held.
Minot—W. E. Smidley, formerly bookkeeper of the city contractor, was held on a charge of embezzlement and was held to the district court. He was arrested at Hermann, Minn., and brought here by the sheriff of that county. The alleged embezzlement is said to have taken place at the time when the defendant is charged with having retained several checks.

CIVIL WAR VETERANS TO MEET ON GETTYSBURG BATTLEFIELD

Huge Reunion of Blue and Gray to Be Held July 1 On Fiftieth Anniversary of Conflict—40,000 Are Expected to Be Entertained by the State of Pennsylvania.

Harrisburg, Pa.—On July 1 the veterans of the Civil War, both Blue and Gray, will meet again on the battlefield at Gettysburg, Pa., after fifty years, but this time it will be in amity and affection.

The state of Pennsylvania on May 15, 1900, organized a commission to consider and arrange for a proper and fitting recognition and observance, at Gettysburg, of the fiftieth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg; to invite the occupants of the congress of the United States, and of other states and nations, to attend the commemorative exercises, and to define the commission's duties and prerogatives and make an appropriation for preliminary expenses of the Civil war.

Test of Invitation to Veterans.
The invitation is as follows: "Pennsylvania, by its commission formally invites the congress of the United States and her sister States and Commonwealths to participate in the commemorative exercises upon whose soil the battle of Gettysburg was fought, to share in this important anniversary and to help make it an event worthy of its historical significance, and an occasion creditable and impressive to our great and reunited nation; and likewise invites the congress of the United States, and of the United Confederate Veterans, to participate in the commemorative exercises."

State Will Act as Host.
Pennsylvania—she providing all entertainment at Gettysburg during July 1, 2, 3 and 4, 1914, for forty thousand (40,000) "honorably discharged veterans of the Civil war," and she and the national government together, as provided by the act of congress of August 29, 1912, by each paying $100,000 for the maintenance of the battle field, to create and maintain a great camp around the battlefield, complete in all its provisions of camp and garrison equipment, with all quarters, commissary, and other necessary supplies ample for such forty thousand veterans.

Free Transportation To and From Gettysburg.
With each commonwealth, state and territory reals absolutely the determination, as each desiring to participate in the Civil War it will issue free transportation, Pennsylvania's invitation being that to such "honorably discharged veterans of the Civil war" as come to the battlefield, to be entertained, either by free transportation or at their own expense, and present proper credentials proving them to be such veterans, who will participate in the commemorative exercises during that period, but she furnishes free transportation to no one, save only to her own veterans or veterans now resident within her borders.

The program of the commemorative exercises is in the direction, which is now pending in her general assembly, the national government furnishing no free transportation at all.

The True and Faithful Association to whose territory Gettysburg has been granted a one and three-fifths round trip excursion rate, good July 15 and returning to original starting point, and which will issue a ticket, good only on same route going and coming and costing two cents per mile, but each state must make its own arrangements for the transportation covering the territory from that state to Pennsylvania.

The railroads at Gettysburg place where a headband there any cars on side tracks.

To Hold Reunion in Great Tent.
A great tent, seating between ten thousand (10,000) and fifteen thousand (15,000) persons, has been erected immediately adjoining the camp, and therein will occur the above exercises, excepting the military parades and fireworks, and therein, save for the military parades, there will be no other exercises, the veterans may hold all reunions they may desire, the tent arranged to be subdivided into numerous separate inclosures. All veterans of the Civil war, both blue and gray, are urged to wear their army corps, division, brigade and society badges, as a means of identification.

There is today at Gettysburg a spirit of brotherhood which includes a cemetery where those shades of soldier dead are buried. The United States government and the legislature of Pennsylvania work to place upon the battlefield every point in it which has historic interest.

SAID ABOUT WOMEN

A woman is happy and satisfied that she has been the art of capturing men—Count Lord N. Tolstoy.

To tell a mother of her daughter's plain dress, she said that she had seen a woman who was dressed in a plain dress, and she said that she had seen a woman who was dressed in a plain dress, and she said that she had seen a woman who was dressed in a plain dress.

The heart of a coquette is like a rose, of which the lover sticks the thorn, leaving only the thorn—the thorn of a coquette.

And women are not only coquettes at this point, but they are coquettes at every point.

But the great majority of women, it seems to me, have no romance. They live as a succession of variations, which keep the nerves in a constant flutter.

TENDERFEET WIN WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP

HILL AND BONS, THE OAT CHAMPIONS, ARE COCKNEYS BORN AND BRED.

City-bred in the world's greatest metropolis and trained as to things agricultural, were J. C. Hill and his three boys when they settled on homesteads in the northern part of the Province of Saskatchewan (western Canada), eight years ago. Today they are the recognized champion oat growers of the entire American continent, and won prizes in succession the silver challenge cup, valued at $1,500, at the Fifth National Corn exposition, Columbia, S. C. The Plaza, officially known as the Colorado One trophy, emblematic of the grand champion prize for the best bush of oats exhibited by individual farmers or establishments at these expositions.

They first made a record in the face of the bleakest competition, hundreds of exhibits being sent by experienced farmers from all parts of the United States and Canada. This was grown in the year in which the wild prairie loss than four years ago.

When Mr. Hill and his three sons, who probably never saw a wider acreage than the hills of Hampstead near London, came to Saskatchewan eight years ago, they had little more capital than was required for homestead entry fees. They filed on four homesteads, in the Lloydminster district, which straddle the boundary of Alberta and Saskatchewan. They went to work with a will, ripping the rich brown sod with breaking plows and put in a crop which yielded 100 bushels.

They labored early and late, and doled themselves plenty perspiration, glad to stand the gaff for a while in raising their potatoes. They talked with successful farmers and studied crops and conditions and profited by both. The new life on the farm was strange but they never lost heart, handicapped as they were by lack of experience and capital.

The farm house, modern in every respect, compares favorably with any residence in the city. The Hills have substantial bank accounts and their wealth is gilt-edged from Edmonton to Winnipeg and beyond.

"There is nothing secret about our methods nor is our plan copyrighted. We first made a record through study of climatic conditions, soil and seed," said Mr. Hill. "We tended our crops carefully and gradually added live stock, realizing from the beginning that mixed farming would pay larger profits than grain raising. We have demonstrated that fact to our satisfaction and the result is that many of the farmers in the district are following our example."

Just Like a Man.
A man suffered from inflammatory rheumatism, and his wife cured him patiently. He had a very faithful and devoted wife, who was very patient and also very fond of him.

After an especially severe attack, a friend called to inquire after him. The patient wore a mournful expression.

"Well," said the friend, cheerfully, "how are you today?"

"Very badly," replied the rheumatist to his friend, "and it's all my wife's fault."

"Why," cried the friend in astonishment, "is it possible?"

"Yes," moaned the invalid, "you know, my wife has taken me always to avoid damp places; and there my wife sits and cries just to make the air moist around me."

"Hinging a Change.
"Oin' to move again this year?" asked the office post.

"Nops, can't afford to."
"What has got to do that?"

"Well," said O'Brien, "we've made arrangements to have our street numbers put on the houses on our block."
