

THE WEEKLY ARENA

Volume 4, Number 17.

ALMONT, MORTON COUNTY, NORTH DAKOTA, APRIL 18, 1914.

Price, Per Year $1.25

H. M. Silversal visited over Sunday at his parents' home in Taylor.

William Gliese who lives a few miles southeast of Almont in the neighborhood of DeVaul, narrowly escaped death Monday when trying to quiet his horses which had become restless and frightened. The horses were hitched to a drill and was standing at their heads trying to pacify them, the horses started to run. Mr. Gliese was thrown to the ground and the heavy drill passed over his body. He suffered four broken ribs and numerous bruises and cuts. Dr. Spellman of Flasher, attended the injured man.

Among the numerous announcements carried in the Arena, that of William Langer for state's attorney, appears for the first time. "Bill" Langer has been assistant state's attorney for the last year, and is well and favorably known all over Morton county. His ability is unquestioned and he ranks with the best of Morton county's lawyers. In electing Attorney Langer to office, the people will be serving their own best interests.

Attorney Oliver Leverson of New Salem, spent Friday in this place in the interest of his candidacy for the republican nomination to the office of clerk of court. He made the Arena a pleasant call and stated he was well pleased with the outlook.

In this issue appears the announcement of George F. Ford for the office of clerk of court. He is well known in this section and does not need an introduction to the people as he has met the most of them during the campaign two years ago.

Judge Jacob Johnson tarried a few minutes in this place, Friday, in the interest of his candidacy for re-nomination to the office of county judge.

H. C. McNeil of Merricourt, N. D., was a guest at the scribe's a couple of days this week.

Brother George Landon, the versatile quillpenner of the Hebron Tribune, has been bitten by the political bug and the inaction was positive, so he announces his candidacy for county judge. He has a hard fight on his hands to do up Jake Johnson and there is any one can do the trick—George can do it. His announcement appears in this issue.

George Arch went to Mandan a few days ago to look after some important business, but—

Miss Hazel Adams is entertaining her cousin, Miss Mossman, over Sunday.

G. G. Chumbrlin is on the sick list this week.

Miss Babetta Deitz of New Salem is the guest of Mrs. Robt. Pruzer, in this place this week.

E. E. COMPTON.

County Commissioner Theodore Feland was an Almont visitor, Saturday afternoon. Mr. Feland is a candidate to succeed himself from district "C" and thus far has in the past four years, given so much satisfaction that no opposition has been able to develop sufficiently strong enough backing as to become a formidable candidate. He made good in this district and also in the entire county.

The splendid rains which visited this section Thursday night and Friday morning, while setting the farm work-back a couple of days, were just right for the agricultural conditions existing here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Pederson are rejoicing over the arrival at their home of a fine girl which Doc Stork left with them one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schendel are entertaining guests from the east this week.

George F. Ford of Mandan, was an Almont business visitor, Wednesday afternoon.

CREAM

Your cream check helps pay your grocery bill so you want every cent that it earns. If you can see your cream tested, and be able to read the result of the test and get your money right there, you would be satisfied that you would get a square deal. Bring your cream to me and get honest weight and test.
