Beautiful Home Wedding

On Wednesday, June 17, 1914, at the home of the bride's parents, 9 miles south of Almont, Miss Clara Christiansen, the charming young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Christiansen, became the wife of Howard Rolph, the ceremony uniting the popular young couple being read by the Rev. Fenton of Carl, in the presence of a number of relatives and a few intimate friends of the couple. Miss Clara Rolph acted as bridesmaid and Arthur Rolph supported the groom.

After the ceremony those present sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner which was much enjoyed by all.

The contracting parties are numbered among the most highly respected young people of the neighborhood and enjoy a host of friends who will join with the Arena in wishing them a happy and prosperous journey thru life together. They will make their home on the groom's farm 12 miles south of Almont where they will be about to their numerous friends.

Last Tuesday evening at nine o'clock it started to rain again and continued raining for three hours. It did not pour down as it did Saturday night, but came down slow enough for it to have time enough to soak into the ground instead of running off without doing any good. If the rains occur half as regular in the future as they have in the past, there is no doubt but that North Dakota will have a bumper crop this year.

E. H. Hyde was in New Salem to have a physician relieve something from one of his eyes. It was very painful and he was unable to sleep for two nights.

From the time the county was organized up to the present time, this district has never had a county commissioner that has done as much for it as Theo. O. Feland. He is the right man for the right place. Vote for him.

The E. H. Hyde house is receiving a coat of fine paint which is greatly improving its appearance. Walter Carter, and John Wegener of New Salem, are doing the work.

The Rocky Ridge and Almont base ball teams played ball on the local grounds Sunday, Almont winning by a score of 4 to 0. Gillis and Gillis were the batters for Almont, and Bahr and Kalberer for Rocky Ridge.

CHURCH NOTES

Rev. Selmer M. Host will preach Sunday afternoon at Timpe school house at 3 o'clock and in Almont in the evening at 8 o'clock. Subject: "Noonan, The Leper."

The Sunday School picnic, announced for the 23, will be held at the Heart river near Lincoln school No. 2. The children will leave Almont at 9 o'clock in the morning. Everybody should try to be at the river at 10 o'clock in the forenoon. Everybody, bring your lunch; ice-cream will be on the place; children, bring your bags.

Every family in this part of the country ought to be there. This will be a day to meet old friends and to make new ones. Give your body and mind a rest and come out and enjoy a day with the children.

County Sunday-School Convention

The annual convention of the Morton County Sunday School association will be held in Mandan Thursday and Friday, July 30 and

31. The program will consist in every possible practical help for the Sunday School worker and will be filled in part by such prominent persons as Governor L. B. Hanson and—Rev.—and—Mrs. Walter A. Snow, secretary and elementary superintendent of the North Dakota Sunday School association, who were largely responsible for the glorious success of the recent state convention in Jamestown.

Sunday Schools should begin now to plan on sending delegates. There are 26 in the county and every one should be represented in Mandan at the County Convention.

The farmers of the territory south of Almont are beginning to recognize the fact that this portion of the state is well adapted to fruit growing and several of them are putting out large patches of strawberries this spring. C. P. Hall has put out three acres of plants, John Galsaur, one acre, and Mr. Bradwell, one acre. These gentlemen have raised berries on a small scale during the past several years and have found out from experience that they may be successfully grown here. They will have plenty of berries for the market next year.

PLAIN BOB AND A JOB

The poem "Plain Bob" by James W. Foley carries a universal message but is of special interest to the author, who until recently was for many years lived at Bismarck, N. D.

Dear Mr. Editor: I have just read your issue of the 21st inst. and I am glad to see that you have published the poem "Plain Bob" by James W. Foley.

Plain Bob and a job, who was looking for a job. And he was so poor and flustered when he saw a sign: "Men Wanted."

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job. And he went to the sign and he saw that it was for a job.

UTTERLY IRRESPONSIBLE

By HARTLEY B. ADAMS

Closely French put down the dolly she was scrubbing and turned to the young man perched on the veranda rail.

"And there isn't some other chap, is there?" he asked.

"You know there isn't," she replied.

"A perfectly good match, Peter," she said.

"I will, for just one year," she said.

"You'll never put me on probation for a year?" he asked.

"I will, for just one year," she said.

A False Accusation.

A report is being circulated thru District "C" that County Commissioner Theo. Peland has misappropriated county funds to the extent of building a structure on his premises in which to house the grinders and other machinery of the county. We are aware that there is such a building, and we are also aware that Mr. Peland paid his own coin for its erection and that it stands as a monument to his own industry and is used free of rent for the purpose of taking proper care of the county's property. Accusations of misappropriation of funds of which one has a voice in his expenditure should not be made at any time, especially during a campaign, in order to injure the integrity of character of an honorable gentleman who has "made good" in the public service. Commissioner Peland would not erect any building on his farmstead with funds that were tainted with misappropriation, and such false statements tend to cement the strong friendship he has made during his long residence in Morton into a phubans that will work and vote for his re-nomination and election to the commissioner-ship he now occupies and which he has filled with honor to himself and the satisfaction of his constituents. The commissioner's proceedings are published and every item of expenditure is passed upon by the board, scheduled and published, and those who willfully cavilize, such an accusation, knowing that no item can be found, donating funds for machine-ry on Mr. Peland's farm, are doing an injustice to a high-minded, honorable official, that will reflect and defeat the ends of those concentrating and juggling the truth. Dirty politics never defeated a good man. — Flasher Hunter.
