SENIOR INTERVIEW

CLASS HAPPENINGS

Miss Gwen Ann Trovik was born in Almont on July 29, 1933. She has blond hair, blue eyes, and is about 5 ft. 4 in. tall. She attended Almont Grade School for eight years. Her favorite subjects in high school are Algebra and Psychology.

Gwen's hobbies are collecting poems and pencils. Her favorite food is waffles. Her favorite past-time is playing the piano which she does a good job of. Unpolished shoes are her pet peeve. School activities in which Gwen is active this year are president of Senior class, editor of "Eagle Eye", assistant editor of the annual, and mixed chorus pianist. After high school she plans to attend college.

The Problems of Democracy class has been studying about Social Security in relation to health, poverty, and employment.

In English IIIB we are reading "Idylles of the King" by Tennyson. Some of it is hard to understand, but we are enjoying it.

Dissecting has been a topic of conversation of those in Biology class. So far, the class has examined fish, worms, and crayfish.

The English I class has been studying "Treasure Island", and finds it very interesting.

The Bookkeeping class is learning how to make financial reports.

The students of World Geography class have just finished studying about manufacturing where it is done and why.

* * * * *

I hear the bells on Christmas Day
The old familiar carols play,
And wild and sweet,
The words repeat
Of peace on earth, good-will to men.

If you've got roses, bless your soul!
Just pin one in my buttonhole.
If you have anything nice to say,
Don't wait until I've passed away.
-Author Unknown-

Then from each black, accursed mouth
The cannon thundered in the south;
And with that sound
The carols drowned
Of peace on earth, good-will to men."

* * * * *

And in despair I bowed my head,
"There is no peace on earth," I said,
"For hate is strong
And mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good-will to men!"

Adeline was a nutty girl Sunday night,
She stepped out on Philip, and now
Philip stepped out on her,
How about it, Ann?????

* * * * *

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep;
"God is not dead, nor doth He sleep;
The Wrong shall fail,
The Right prevail,
With peace on earth, good-will to men!"
-Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Shirley: "Which side of the chicken has the most feathers?"
Mr. McGinnis: "I can't know."
Shirley: "The out side".

ANNUAL PICTURES

On December 7, members of the high school went to the Mohr Studio in Mandan to have their pictures taken for the annual.

Those who drove cars are: Mr. Thorval Larson, Mrs. Don Klingensmith, Mr. McGinnis, Mr. Lennhardt, Joel Johnson, and Roger Becklund. The high school wishes to thank these people for their generosity and helping to make this possible.

We all had that Obert and Roger had a much warmer ride home. Those ARM'S STUFFS heaters are pretty good, aren't they Toots and Adeline?? (Sigh)

Obert's certainly seen happy lately!! Maybe it could be because Joe came home for Christmas.

Obert: "Do you want to hear a good Moron joke?"

Luice: "What?"

Obert: "Any good little moron does."

Audrey seems to have a most difficult and confusing time trying to make up her mind!!!!

* * * * *

Ad line, How come your complexion was so red on the way home from Taylor??? AND--maybe you shouldn't two-time poor Joel that way!!

*****

PETE: "Do you enjoy good music?"
AUDREY: Yes'm but go right ahead anyway."

CHRISTMAS PARTY

On December 29th the Almont High School students had their Christmas Party. The group went caroling for about an hour. After they returned, the senior boys acted as Santa Claus and passed out the presents. After the presents were opened several games were played and a delicious lunch was served.

*****

FELICITY ROOM

Several pupils have colds. A few of them missed a day or a half of school. Santas and wreaths have decorated our room cheerfully. The other decorations are made with green and red crepe paper. We have our tree decorated and we are all ready for our party on Thursday. Before our party we will read "The Christmas Story."

*****

UPPER ROOM

The upper grades have received their Junior Red Cross pins. Each pupil brought some money for the enrollment charge and donations.

We also have joined the National Young Citizens League.

The 7th and 8th grade have been enjoying reading the "Christmas Carol".

Several from our room have been ill with the flu. Milre Kaelberer has just returned to school after a good seige of chicken pox.

The Eighth Grade has charge of the decorations of our room and the Christmas party. They have done a very nice job with the help of some of the others in the other grades. We are having our party Friday the 22nd. Everyone is exchanging gifts.

*****

Edward: "Why is it you always wear two pair of pants when you go golfing?"
Alton: "I might get a hole-in-one."

EDITORS NOTES

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The Christmas Spirit is a spirit of cheerfulness and happiness. All giving at Christmas time, to be giving should be done with a joyful, unselfish spirit. When one considers the true meaning of Christmas, there is a real reason for joy and happiness.

Today we commercialize Christmas too much. Many of the homey, and happy, Christmas feelings are gone. We feel we must buy many expensive gifts and we rush here and there until we're too tired to enjoy the season. Not much Christmas is celebrated at home in the manner that our forefathers celebrated Christmas. Our nation perhaps would be in a happier state of affairs if we hadn't drifted so far from the true meaning of Christmas.

*****

Angie and Roger, Obert and Toots, and Shirley T. and Jerry seemed to have a lot of fun caroling Christmas songs while Audrey and Joel, and Virginia and Harold seemed to enjoy themselves better serenading each other with love songs.

*****

We, The Paper Staff, wish to have each and every one of you to ever look all those mistakes which have occurred so often in our fair paper. We will try our best to be better in the next issue. Until then, We wish you all a very MERRY CHRISTMAS, and a HAPPY NEW YEAR.
