FRESHVEN INITIATION

On Sept. 29, 1952 the Freshmen were initiated. The boys and girls were ladies hats, and green sweaters. High heeled shoes, gunny sacks, and necklace of onions.

In the afternoon the Freshmen marche ed through the grade rooms and then down town to all the business places.

For the evening party they came barefoot, dressed in pajamas. Some tricks were played which everyone enjoyed. A few games were played, a refreshing lunch was served, and dancing followed.

FRESHMEN RETURN PARTY

The Freshmen invited the High School to the Freshmen Return Party held Oct. 10. The party began at 8:0' clock. We started the evening out by playing games, some of which were:

Ruth and Jacob or Adam and Eve.

COLUMBUS DAY

Columbus Day is celebrated on October 12, to honor the day Columbus discovered America. On October 12, 1492 Christopher Columbus first set foot on the soil of the New World. In 1492 President Benjamin Harrison called upon the people to celebrate Columbus Day as the four-hundredth anniversary of the landing of Columbus. Most states now recognise October 12 as a legal holiday, and many schools have special programs.

Almost everyone knows the story of how Christopher Columbus found America, but here are a few facts you may not have learned in your school. His family name was Colombo, not Columbus. After he settled in Spain he changed his name to Colon. The name Columbus comes from the latin form of his name, His brother Bartholomew helped him plan the great voyage, and was his right-hand man in his enterprizes. Columbus was not trying to "prove the world is round" as is so often said. He beleived people already knew. It cost $14,000 to supply the fleet. The men were not afraid of falling off the edge of the world as many people beleive, but they wore afraid they could not got back aginst the wind, which always seemed to be blowing from the East. No land was seen for three weeks. The longest voyage ever made out of land, but on October 12, land was sighted,

We have been studying about the United States in Geography, also in History. Some of it is about our state. History and Geography are fun.

We had experiments in Science to see what fruits and vegetables have starch, sugar, a d fat. To test them we used iodine. The foods we tested wree potatoes, tomatees, oranges, carrots, beets, bread, butterm and nuts.

They have library books to read. Te have some new books that the school bought. They are very interesting.

Ers. Holle brought a new block to school. We didn't have any before. Now we can tell the time.

We have a song flute band. Mrs. Kurle is our leader. We know some songs that we are going to sing for the carnival the 24, of October.

We have had art many times. Last time we had our pick to make poaters of Indiams or Columbus.

The world is actually round belive it or not.

If foods and drugs are exempted from the North Dakota sales tax, the Legi lative Research Committee was informed Saturday, payments into the states education and welfare fund would be reduced by 20 to 25 per cort.

As a result, the research committee's education subcommittee said in a formal report, "The support to schools and cublic welfare program rould have to be curtailed, or the additional funds would have to be obtained from other taxes."

The research committee accepted the subcommittee's report without taking any stand on a proposed initiated amendment to the Sales Tax Law that will appear on the Nov. 4 general election ballot. The proposal would lift the two per cent sales tax from foods, food products, drugs and medicine for human consumption.

The education subcommittee, in a report that had been ordered by the full committee, said that during the calendared year o' 19fl. the sales tax brought in approximately $11,600,000. It noted that of a sales tax collection. 7/12 is tistibuted by law to the State Equilization Fund and 5/12 for welfare programs.

Payments are made from the equalization fund to the schools of the state. Beneficiaries include rural and city elementary schools, high schools, and other those of public education. Some schools, the subcommittee said, receive up to 70 per cent of their support from this source.

Telfare activies sharing in the 5/12 of sales tax collection, the committee noted include old age assistance, aid to dependent children, aid to the blind, to the totally and permantly disabled and to the crippled.

"Approximately 40 per cent of the cost of these services comes from this source," The subcommittee's report said. "This money is ther more than evenly matched by the federal government, which provides approximately 50 per cent of the funds needed. At present only 10 per cent of the total needed is furnished by the county from its tax moneys."

"If the state should furnish less than it does at present, a lesser amount would also be available from the federal government, as it does not match county money. With smaller amounts received from these two sources, the counties would have to provide through their tax dollar a larger amount than is row "urnished to meet their "elfare needs."

The subcommittee said that in recent years, heavier demands have been made upon these funds, due to higher costs of operating achoels and maintaining welfare programs, and declared, "Present costs of operating these programs are approximately equal to the amount that the sales tax yields."

It is said that "Should economic conditions cause a drop in the income of these funds, for even a year or two, the payments needed to help supply schools and velfare programs would much larger than what the fund would bring in during such times."

The report concluded:

"Initiated measure No. 2 on the Nov. 4 ballot would exempt all foods, food products, drugs and medicines from the operation of the sales tax. This would reduce the payments into the education and welfare funds by from 20 to 25 per cent.

The people of North Dakota would then be faced by either of two alternatives: Either the support of schools and public welfare trograms would have to be curtailed, or the additional funds would have to be obtained from other taxes upon the people of our state."
